The Virginian

DR. J. L. JARMAN
OUR PRESIDENT

The Virginian

Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-three

EDITED BY

The Senior Classes of the State Normal School
Farmville, Virginia

GREETINGS

It has been our aim to give to each of you something valuable in this, your Virginian. If this volume of The Virginian gives a true picture of the life at S. N. S., if it will later in life's battle carry you back to some joyous occasion; if in the distant future this may help to bridge the chasm between the years and to brighten the memories of happy days spent at S. N. S. and of the many friends made while there, the result of our efforts will not have been in vain. Our one desire is that we may keep alive our love for each other and for our Alma Mater.

GADLE

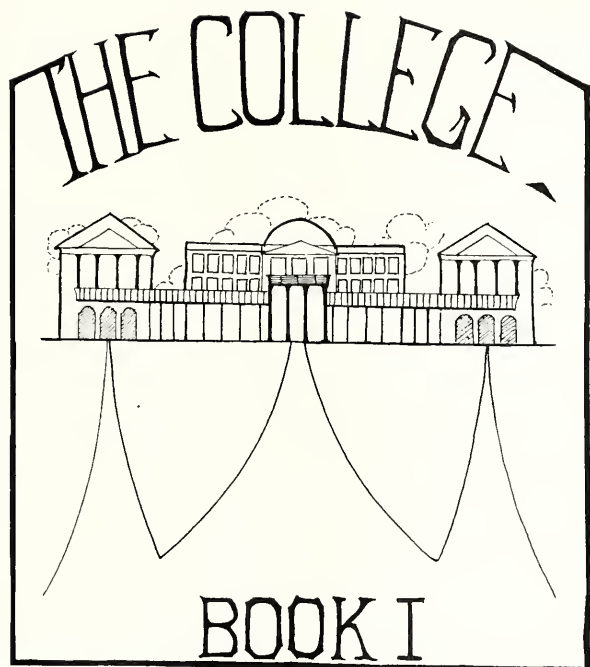

Dedication

To the Student Building, our House Beautiful, made possible by the faith of our President, the hopes of our student body, and the love and loyalty of the alumnae, the Graduating Classes of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-three sincerely dedicate this volume of the
Virginian

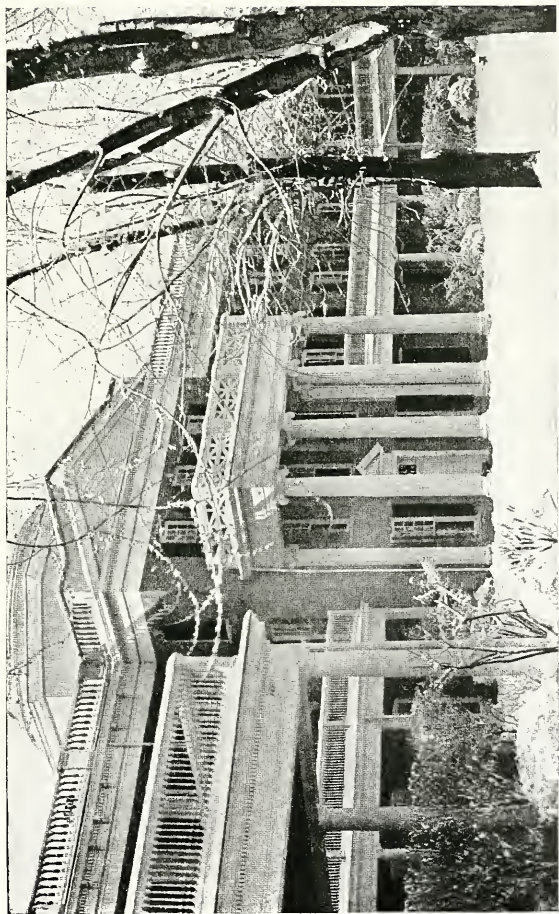

Dr. Jarman digging the first shovelful of dirt for the Student Building, Sept. 9, 1922

To Alma Mater

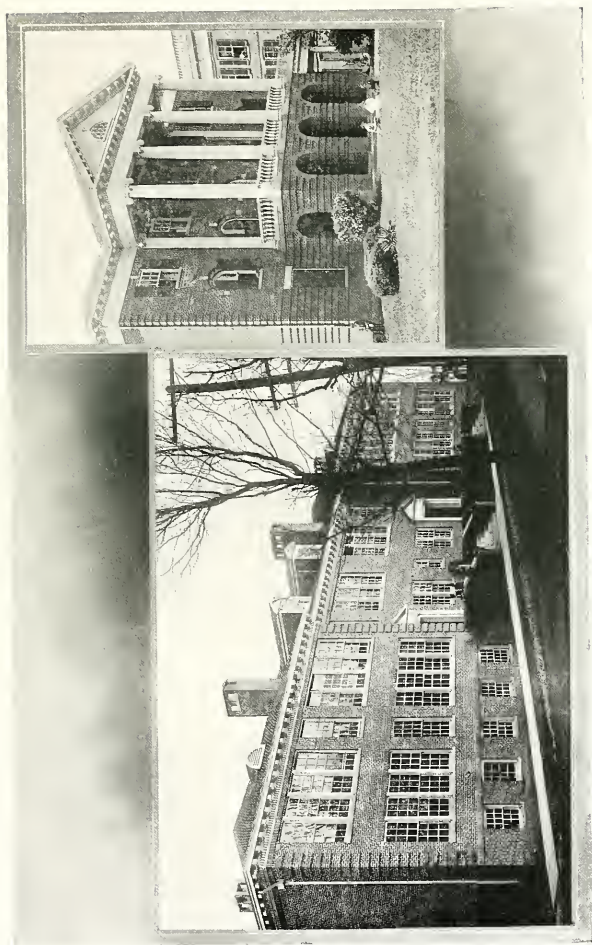

Because our hearts are thoughtless and too young
For understanding, forgive for awhile
Our seemingly blind eyes and careless smile,
The while we seem to mock with ways and tongue
Thy white, far soul, thy loveliness, so long
A thing of fable that 'tis hard to know
And live, a truth of everyday. And yet—we go
From out thy doors with more of joy and song
Within our hearts because thou hast been there
Before our inner selves, an ideal calm and fair
And very lovely, with thy service-roughened hands
And the undoubting faith deep in thy eyes.
And we are reverent for we know, 'neath deep'ning skies,
Thou ledest us to far and wondrous lands.

2. "The lowing herd winds slowly o'er the _____."
3. "_____ bridge is falling down, falling down."
4. "Forth from the scabbard pure and bright flashed the sword of _____."
5. "Not for this, not for these, I love thy _____ to roam."

Dr. Jarman, in his addresses,
This point he always stresses,
That co-operating
In every undertaking
Is sure to bring successes.

He has a great plan
And works every way he can
To raise the cash
Without being rash
For the best Student Building in the land.

To Dr. Jarman, we owe our best,
For surely he has stood the test
Both night and day
In every way
He strives to make our school the best.

Prelude

You know how
An oyster looks,
Well, that's the way I
Felt when "Little Mamie" told me
To write a poem about
"All four classes."

There's nothing to say

Except you keep

Going to school until

You

Graduate,

But

One has to earn his daily bread,

And so:

We shall call it

A FABLE

Oh, yes!

I used to be a Freshman, too.

We all were—

But we got over it,

Outgrew it, don't you know,

As one outgrows the measles

Or any other such disease.

The symptoms?

Well,

Oh, I was very, very young

And noble.

And I would fain reform the world

Of all its ills.

So, I commenced.

Student Government was tyranny

Of a bigoted few;

I rebelled,

I went riding,

I also, later, gave up reform;

After all, against such odds,

What was the use?

Cynical and weary and very worldly wise

I lived, a Soph.

What robbed me of my youthful bloom

Alas, a training school

Of supervisors, a score or so,

And lesson plans

Would rob a Missouri mule

Of any kick.

But when I was a Junior,

Good lackaday, a fool indeed I was!

And indulged all the suppressed desires

Of former years to attain euteness;

I loved myself,

And to say the faculty

Also greatly admired

Would be patting it mildly,

Alas, they weren't so mild,

So, I calmed down

Into a College Senior.

One step is still untaken

Before the end of my Career.

I ain't no old maid school-Ma'am

Yet—

But what's the use?

I will be.

Alas!

W. C. A. Convention '22-'23.

Listen! I hear a great noise! It's Lois, leading the cheers of S.N.S.! Of course the rooting is a success, but not in cheering alone has she attained success. She has a very rare personality — one that you detect when you meet her and that stays with you always. As president of the degree class of '23 her dignity, level headiness, and ability have made her beloved by all.

Motto: "A man's reach should exceed his grasp or what's a Heaven for."

MARY GEORGE BOLEN, B. S.
Culpeper, Virginia.

Student Committee, '21, '22, '23; Y. W. C. A., Service Committee '20-'21, Rural Life Committee '21-'22, Treasurer '22-'23; Athenian Literary Society, Vice-President Spring term '21, President Fall term '21, Critic Winter term '22; Servers' Tennis Club, Secretary-Treasurer '20-'21; Promotion Committee, '21-'22; Hiking Club; Travelers Club; Rural Club; Athletic Association; College Club; Le Cercle Français; College Junior Basketball team, '22; K. I. L.

Mary George is a girl who, when once a friend, is always a friend. She is generous, faithful to duty, conscientious in all things and very dependable. Mary is the girl who will succeed in all that she undertakes because of her ability to go forward and command the respect and admiration of all with whom she comes in contact.

LELIA PEEBLES BURROW, B. S.
Arabella

Disputanta, Virginia.

Athenian Literary Society; Athletic Association; Hiking Club; Ruffner Debating Society; Secretary Normal League; Rural Club; K. I. L.; College Club; El Circulo Espanol; S. D. S.; Y. W. C. A., Finance Committee; Prince George Club.

Always thoughtful of others, happiest when giving happiness to her friends, lovely in her character and disposition, Lelia has won a choice place in the esteem of her class mates. May each day bring new joys to you, Lelia.

MARIAN CAMPER, B. S.
Orange, Virginia.

Y. W. C. A., President '22-'23, Religious Meetings Committee '20-'21, Chairman World Fellowship Committee '21-'22; Mandolin and Guitar Club; Hiking Club; Servers Tennis Club; Orange Club, President '20-'22; Athletic Association; College Club; Treasurer '21-'22; Student Government Committee, '22-'23; Student Standards Committee '21-'23; El Circulo Espanol; K. I. L.; Basketball Team, '21-'22; Athenian Literary Society, Treasurer '21, Vice-President '22; Blue Ridge Club; Delegate Y. W. C. A. National Convention.

So attractive is her personality and so dignified is her way of handling it, that it is good to call her friend. In Marian you find a girl who is as true as steel, sincere and independent. She has a cheery word and smile for everyone. You may go to her at any time and find her never too busy or too tired to help you.

ELLEN SOFIA CARLSON, B. S.
Claremont, Virginia.

Argus Literary Society, Reporter '22-'23; Treasurer of class, '21-'23; Travelers Club, Vice-President '22-'23; Y. W. C. A., Social Service Committee '20-'22; Alumnae-Membership Committee, Chairman '22-'23; Delegate to Student Volunteer Convention '22; Jefferson Debating Society '19-'21; Student Government Campus League '20-'21; Athletic Association; Hiking Club; Le Cercle Francais; Rural Club; College Club; K. I. L.

Ellen is the type of girl whom one wants to know better in order to appreciate her sterling qualities. She has a keen sense of humor; a quiet, easy-going disposition, and an ever-ready desire to help one and all. She is conscientious and loyal to her ideals.

Ellen, may a trip to Sweden be yours very soon!

LOU GREGORY, B. S.

Ontario, Virginia.

Dramatic Club; Cunningham Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Rural Club; Travelers Club; College Club; K. I. L.; S. D. S.

One of the best old sports, and one of the best friends anybody could hope to have is Lou. She's sincere and always willing to help one out. Though she doesn't waste any time burning the midnight oil, she gets there just the same. When you have a dreadful case of the "blues" just prepare to bid them good bye when Lou comes around with all of her wit and humor. The funniest thing ever is that "bark" of hers. "Here's music for your soul, Lou!"

MARY JEFFERSON, B. S.

Mary Jeff

Amelia, Virginia.

Delta Sigma Chi; Pierian Literary Society; Glee Club; Mandolin and Guitar Club; Y. W. C. A., Music Committee, '20-'21; Campus League '20-'21; Servers Tennis Club, President '21-'22; K. I. L.; College Club.

The greatest asset of every girl is cheerfulness. Mary Jeff seems to have known this since her early days, for she is surely one of this kind. Level-headed, dependable, and everybody's friend is Mary. She has the confidence and friendship of every girl who has come in contact with her. Here's wishing you success, Mary!

ERNESTINE LYNWOOD LANDRUM,
B. S.
Teeny
Farmville, Virginia.

Argus Literary Society; Athletic Association; College Club; De-Ho-Ec Club; Y. W. C. A.; K. I. L.; S. D. S.

This happy-go-lucky specimen of humanity came to us from Florida State College in 1921. "Teeny," whatever the time or weather, is always happy. Ten minutes with her is guaranteed to cure any case of the blues. She takes a great delight in all of her studies and comes out with marked success especially on "Bugology." She is probably the happiest when helping in the Training School Lunch Room for which she always get a "little commission." She is a good sport and always ready for any kind of activities or amusement.

STELLA MARIE LANG, B. S.
Temperanceville, Virginia.
Eastern Shore Club, President; Y. W. C. A.; College Club; K. I. L.

"Slow but sure" was evidently written by someone who was thinking of Stella, because it fits her to a dot. In the rush, worry, hurry, and mad cap racing of school life, we have all found her calm, quiet, imperturbability a source of great comfort. Her methodical habits combined with her dignity give one the impression of an unapproachable personality but when she smiles, her dimples contradict any such idea.

ANNE SHELTON MEREDITH, B. S.

Annie
Gouldin, Virginia.

The Virginian, Business Manager '23; Rotunda, News Editor '22-'23; Student Standards Committee, Chairman '22-'23; Senior Class, Secretary '21-'22-'23; Cunningham Literary Society, Vice-President '22; College Club; Ruffner Debating Society, '19-'20; Rural Club; Ellen Richards Club '19-'20; Racquetters; Y. W. C. A.; El Circulo Espanol; K. I. L.; Athletic Association; S. D. S.; Delegate S. I. N. A. '22.

We need the power of a clever, modern novelist versed in the art of portraying unusual personalities, to describe that amazing combination of qualities which is our Anne. She is most versatile in her talents, being highly domestic, of a literary turn, extraordinarily business-like and very lovable, even if she does insist on charging a "little commission" on all services.

MARY ELIZABETH BERKELY
MORING, B. S.

Beth
Farmville, Virginia.

Pi Kappa Omega; Zeta Tau; W. A. N. K.; President of high school, freshman, sophomore, and junior classes; Senior Class, Vice-President; Argus Literary Society, Secretary '19-'20, Vice-President, '20, President '21-'22; Rotunda, Business Manager '20; Editor-in-Chief, '22-'23; Student Standards Committee '20-'21; Undergraduate Representative, Y. W. C. A. '21-'22; Delegate to Y. W. C. A. Council, '21; Student Volunteer Convention '20 and '21.

Look where you may, you will not often see an unusual girl like Elizabeth. Where indeed could you ever hope to find such a rare combination of intellect, beauty, charm, poise, frankness and efficiency? She has made a complete success of her school life for she "has a heart to resolve, a head to contrive and a hand to execute."

MARY POMEROY NICHOLS, B. S.

Mamie

Petersburg, Virginia.

Pi Kappa Omega; Zeta Tau; Y. W. C. A. Religious Meetings Committee '20-'21, Chairman '21-'22, Secretary '22-'23; The Virginian Staff, Literary Editor '20-'21, '22-'23; Argus Literary Society, Reporter '21-'22, critic '22, President '23; College Club, President '23; K. I. L.; Hiking Club; Dinwiddie Club; Athletic Association; El Circulo Espanol; Le Cercle Français; Delegate Y. W. C. A. Training Council '21, National Convention.

Mary is always in haste, but never in a hurry! Her wonderfully progressive spirit is felt in everything in which she takes a part. What she greatly thinks, she nobly dares. She is an ideal friend, the kind you do not find every day, for she mixes reason with pleasure and wisdom with mirth. Here's wishing you the success you deserve, Mamie.

ALICE LOUISE SCOTT, B. S.

Scottie

Deltaville, Virginia.

Senior representative to Athletic Council; Glee Club; Mandolin and Guitar Club; Athenian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A. Publicity Committee '22, Junior Baseball team '20; College Club, Treasurer '22; College Junior baseball team '22; Athletic Association; K. I. L.; S. D. S.; El Circulo Espanol; Gloucester and Mathews Club '20; Hiking Club.

"Scottie" is a grand sport and is always ready for anything. She is our member of varsity, tho her letters are white on less white "in silhouette." Whenever we want anything artistic we always invite Louise to join the party, then we have the artist in person. These foregoing statements may not tell you, fair readers, a thing but to us they mean "Scottie."

MARIE GARNETT SUTTON, B. S.
Sandidges, Virginia.

Student Government Committee, '22-'23; Normal League '22-'23; Cunningham Literary Society; El Circulo Espanol; Le Cercle Français, President; Jefferson Debating Society '19-'20; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Reporter III Professional Class; College Club; S. D. S.; K. I. L.

Because of her unfailing good humor, and willingness to accommodate, Marie is often imposed upon by people desiring her to accompany them down the street. Especially to "Harolds" and to the "Cash and Carry" where it's her delight to carry what someone else cashes.

Marie sits up until eleven every night and sets the alarm clock at six; then sleeps until 7:30, in order to be ready for 8:15. Such is the life of the teacher. When it comes to Biology, Marie is as smart as she is "sweet."

KATHRYN THOMPSON, B. S.
K. T.

Warrenton, Virginia.

Gamma Theta; Mu Omega; Argus Literary Society, Corresponding Secretary '21; Pan-Hellenic Representative '20-'22; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association Racquetters Tennis Club; College Club; W. A. N. K.; U-Et-R; K. I. L.; Junior Baseball Team '20, Manager '22.

If you have ever known K. T. you will never forget her; and if you haven't, well, that's your misfortune. She is a sport through and through and delights in playing ball and in riding. She is a lady in every respect, her wonderful personality and sweet gracious manner have endeared her to all of us. She is a friend without a peer and a comrade without a fault.

May the years that are stretching ahead of you, K. T., be filled with the best life has to offer!

MARJORIE SCHAU THOMPSON, B. S.
Scottsburg, Virginia.

Pi Kappa Omega; Argus Literary Society, Vice-President '07; Vice-President of Class, '07; Racket-Raisers Tennis Club; Glee Club '09-'10; Y. W. C. A. Devotional Committee, '07-'10; Guidon, Business Manager '10; Athletic Association; Travelers Club; College Club.

Marjorie has the rare qualities of a personality full of grace, ideals of beauty and worth, and loveliness of character. Her straight forwardness and independence together with her studious nature have made her admired and esteemed by all who know her. If a difficult question arises, girls say, "Ask Marjorie, she knows." She generally does know, for in thoroughness and efficiency her equal cannot be found.

PEARL YOUNG, B. S.
Farmville, Virginia.

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Orchestra; College Club; III Professional Basketball team; K. I. L.

Pearl is said to be the ten o'clock scholar of her class but this is not shown in her class spirit. She is a good co-operator and a talented contributor especially along musical lines. She has one of the sweetest voices, the most charming of smiles, and the loveliest manners one can find in any one girl.

Backward Glances to 1923

"Anne, come here! Look at this old book I found. If it isn't a record of the important events that happened that last year at Farmville!"

"Well, Ernestine, let's look through it to see what we were doing ten years ago."

"Listen to this entry:

"September 24—Lois told me the most remarkable thing this morning. This summer, when she, Marion, and Pearl were at Blue Ridge, Pearl actually got up at 3 a. m. to go on a hiking trip. It's hard to believe, but how can I doubt such good authority? That's too funny and last year Pearl was appointed as Mr. Lear's successor. (How she dreaded being observed!) I wonder if she meets classes on time?"

"As for Lois, I was out on her farm the other day. She's so interested in her truck farm, and she was telling me of this new cabbage she has evolved."

"Just think! When she roomed across from me at S. N. S. she wouldn't even eat them."

"And Marion is a milliner, of all things. Isn't it queer? At school she pestered me to death to show her this and to show her that about embroidering one little towel for her hope chest, which she hasn't needed. And now 'Camp-er' is the latest in hats, and that always means handwork."

"October 28—My Hallowe'en party was loads of fun; but the funniest thing of all was when playing 'poor pussy' we couldn't make Stella laugh. Goodness! But she was solemn."

"What's she doing now, Anne?"

"Why, didn't you know she was one of the leading comic stars in the movies? What's next?"

"November 16—Mamie starred in volley ball."

"That's good. She is now physical director at Sargeants and is tall and fat."

"December 8—Ellen's date! The whole school was aroused!"

"I haven't heard about Ellen in a long time. What's she doing?"

"I don't know, but I bet she's still living on that money she managed to get out of us at Farmville. She certainly was a good treasurer."

"December 19—Poor Elizabeth! 'Tis sad but true, when everyone is so excited about going home, she hasn't a thing to be excited over, for she's here."

"Toot! toot! Here comes the 4:19. I must hurry."

"My goodness! Doesn't that bring back memories. And to think that now 'Liz' of all people has left Farmville, and gone out west where the 'Cactus' grows."

“‘January 27—Anne, Marie, Lelia, Louise and I desiring a square meal, purchased ‘eats’, went over to the lunch room, cooked Hamburg steak and hot biseuits, thereby being full for once.’”

“‘Will you ever forget that meal, and to think where they all are now.’”

“‘Last month I saw from the Entomological Journal that Marie sailed for Africa to secure a lysido ealeroptera, to complete her collection of moths.’”

“‘You know, Lelia has finally accepted the biological chair at Farmville. I know she’s glad, no more dish washing.’”

“‘And Louise’s ‘Art Shop’ is one of the most popular places in Baltimore to select one’s gifts. Louise always was artistic.’”

“‘February 2—K. T. was going to have a date. She went to Hubbard’s to meet it, but it didn’t show up.’”

“‘Where’s Kathryn now, do you know?’”

“‘The last time I heard of her she was one of the editors of the Geographical Magazine. I guess she still is.’”

“‘She always was crazy about geography.’”

“‘You haven’t said a word about Mary George, and she’s bound to be there.’”

“‘Here she is. ‘March 5—Put salt in Mary Bolen’s bed. She didn’t like it.’”

“‘Isn’t that strange? Mary Bolen of all people who hated salt as she did to be the business manager of a salt refining company.’”

“‘Well, if here isn’t something about Mary Jeff and I can’t even read it. It’s just as crazy as she was.’”

“‘Well, you never would think she was the same person. You know she runs the cafeteria at the Y. W.’”

“‘April 16—Lou has just been in and shown me her latest new dress. She does have more clothes!’”

“‘Tis still true. The last time I saw her she was a model in one of the leading shops in New York. Some people never change.’”

“‘May 14—Marjorie said she wanted to vamp somebody.’”

“‘I don’t reckon you mean Marjorie Thompson?’”

“‘That’s just whom I did mean. Furthermore, she has done better than that. She has vamped and married him too. Don’t you remember her wedding was in an alumnae column of the Rotunda several years ago?’”

“‘For goodness sakes, stop! It makes me feel ancient. Wouldn’t it be fun if we could all get together again?’”

“‘Oh! I have it. Let’s have a reunion next June. We’ll send out the ‘invites’ immediately, so they can all plan to be here, and we’ll have one of the old time parties in our tea room.’”

“‘Won’t that be fun. They’ll just love our tea room.’”

CARRIE LEE ALFORD

Dublin, Virginia

Dramatic Club; Athenian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Travelers Club; Athletic Association.

In Carrie Lee, beauty and common sense are combined with attractiveness. She is a true friend and one that can be depended upon to do her part and to help others by it. While she believes in having a good time, she is a good student and an earnest worker who will make her way in life.

LEILA LEE ALMOND

Washington, Virginia

Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

Leila's lovable disposition has won the friendship of all her classmates during her school career. She has an ever-ready smile from which gleams love, friendliness, and good will. When our dear, good-natured Leila goes back to the mountains of Virginia, she will leave vacant a place which few will be able to fill.

REBECCA MAE AMES

Becky

Pungoteague, Virginia

Zeta Tau; Athletic Association; Eastern Shore Club; Y. W. C. A. Finance Committee, '22-'23; Argus Literary Society; Varsity Squad, '22.

Becky is a sport in the truest sense of the word and is a renowned athlete. As basketball star and athletic leader, she has won high honors. Her cheerfulness, faithfulness, lovable-ness, and humor make her a good pal, as everyone remembers.

CHARLOTTE KIMBROUGH

ANDERSON

Arrington, Virginia

De Ho Ec Club; Ellen Richard's Club; Servers Tennis Club; Nelson Club; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Jefferson Literary Society.

Why that winning smile and mischievous twinkle of merry eyes? Because you just can not help smiling if you have a sunny disposition like Charlotte's. She is mischievous, jolly, and lovable, winning many friends at S. N. S. who will have no one to drive away the blues when she is gone.

DOROTHY EMELINE ASKEW

Dots

Hampton, Virginia

Pi Kappa Omega Service Committee of Y. W. C. A. '22; Athletic Association; Reporter, Rural Club '22; Critic, Jefferson Literary Society '22; Reporter, Travelers' Club '22.

When do you keep quiet until you have something worth while to say? Just ask Dorothy and she will tell you, as that is her rule in life. Dorothy has a pleasing personality as well as strength of character and loyalty. It is because of these and other qualities that she is held in high esteem at S.N.S.

RACHAEL W. AYLOR

Rebecca

Rapidan, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; De Ho Ec Club.

Not many know Rachael, for she is one who does not like to attract attention, but pursues her thoughtful course quietly. The longer you know her the better you love her, as there is much in her to love and admire.

MARY STAFFORD BABER

Lynchburg, Virginia

Lynchburg Club, President, '22-'23; De-Ho-Ec Club, President, '23; Ellen Richards Club; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A. Conference and Convention Committee, '22; Pierian Literary Society.

Mary has been a consistent scholar throughout her school career and when she goes into the State to teach, we are sure she will uphold the traditions of old S. N. S. In school, Mary is loved and outside she can't help but be recognized.

GRACE HANNAH BAILEY

B. B.

Farmville, Virginia

Argus Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Campus League, '21-'22-'23; Baseball Team, '20-'21-'22; El Circulo Espanol; Le Cercle Francais.

What's the use of saying anything? For every one who has ever known her can say only nice things about her. Grace is one of the best old sports and one of the best friends anybody could have. When you have a terrible case of the blues, listen to her laugh, then the blues disappear. She has a sunny disposition, even with red hair.

MARY TYLER BAKER

Columbia, Virginia

Rural Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Cumberland Club.

"So peaceful is her nature and so even her existence that her quiet presence disturbs not her fellow man, but is a help and pleasure to all."

VIRGINIAN

FRANCES BARGAMIN

Bedford, Virginia

Delta Sigma Chi; Dramatic Club; D. I. R. K.; Cotillion Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

When you see Frances you're simply thrilled with the sight of her marvelous hair. Her attractiveness is by no means limited to her hair, for she has an amazing way of making and keeping friends. She's full of pep and always ready to go, especially to dances. We do not know whether she intends to teach but we're sure wherever she goes she'll win success.

DORIS CORNELIA BEALE

Franklin, Virginia

Zeta Tau; Y. W. C. A. Service Committee; Cunningham Literary Society. Recording Secretary, '21-'22-'23; Athletic Association; Southampton Club.

Here comes one girl simply bubbling with "pep". You simply can't help being happy when you are with her. In work and in play, Doris does succeed. She has a very convincing way that makes you stand by her, and you usually find yourself in the right, especially if it is in managing "Lands."

ESTELLE START BENNETT

Peggy

Catlett, Virginia

Y. W. C. A. Bible Study Committee; Athletic Association; Pierian Literary Society, Secretary Spring 1921, Critic Fall 1922.

Estelle has a rare combination of intelligence and feminine charm. We may safely say that her charming personality and attractive manner will assure her every success in the future.

GRACIE COFER BETTS

Betts

Ivor, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Rural Life Club; Jefferson Literary Society, Treasurer Fall 1922.

Goodness, refinement, conscientiousness, and earnestness are qualities all her own. Her heart is ever merry, and she is always greeted with a smile.

HATTYE MYRTLE BLANKENSHIP

Hat

Appalachia, Virginia

De-Ho-Ec Club; Y. W. C. A.; Ruffner Literary Society; Server's Tennis Club, '21-'22; Racquetteer's Tennis Club, '22-'23; Orchestra, '22-'23; Athletic Association.

Hattye is just Hattye, and there is no one else like her. Possessing a heart as big as you find them, and a nature as sincere and steadfast as anyone could wish, she makes an ideal friend. A steady and sincere worker, she yet has a very sunny nature and is always ready to lend sympathy and aid.

EDNA YOUNG BLANTON

Monk

Ballsville, Virginia

Junior Class, Treasurer, '21-'22; Student Government Committee, '21-'22; Y. W. C. A. World Fellowship Committee, '21-'22; Cabinet '22-'23; Athenian Literary Society, Critic and censor '21-'22, Reporter, '22-'23; Student Government Committee '22-'23; Blue Ridge Club; Rural Club; Athletic Association; Travelers' Club.

Edna is that person who hails you, as she passes, with such a genuine "Hey there" that it lifts the burden from your shoulders. Dignity, purity of character, calmness, these are some of her personal traits. Serious-minded though she is, she has an irrepressible gayety, which makes her a charming companion. She is a friend to the world, and her motto is "Service."

VIRGINIA WALTON BONDURANT

Ginnie

Rice, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Athenian Literary Society, Treasurer Winter Term, Critic Fall Term; Rural Club, Vice-President.

Virginia is a good sport and liked by every one. Nothing ever seems to worry her for she is always happy and ready to help others. She has more than her share of knowledge and a plenty of common sense. May these ever go hand in hand!

GENEVIEVE BONNEWELL

Shin

Morrison, Virginia

Rotunda, Assistant Business Manager, '22-'23; Athenian Literary Society, Corresponding Secretary, Winter '22; Y. W. C. A. Bible Study Committee, '22-'23; Ellen Richards Club; Newport News Club, Secretary '21-'22; President '22-'23; Campus League, '22-'23; Athletic Association, Cheer Leader '21-'22-'23.

It has often been said of Genevieve that she looks the typical college girl. This is indeed very true, and what is more, she has the "pep" and enthusiasm belonging to one of this type. Genevieve is never too busy to participate in every activity in school. She does everything with the same spirit with which she leads yells, putting her whole heart and soul into it.

MARY ELIZABETH BOOKER

Mary J

Pamplin, Virginia

Orchestra, Mandolin-Guitar Club; Y. W. C. A.; Ruffner Literary Society; Athletic Association.

Music is the key to Mary's heart. She is very talented along this line. Her kind heart and gentle ways have won for her the love of many friends.

ELISE EUGENIA BRADLEY

University, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Normal League; Travelers Club; Athletic Association.

Whenever you meet Elise in the halls, she is loaded with books. She is a girl who can do her work well and without grumbling and talking about it. She has the gift of being a good listener, which is as valuable as that of being a good talker. She may truly say, "I worked with patience which means almost power."

MARTHA ELMA BRET

Amo

Newsoms, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Southampton Club.

"She seldom speaks but when she does, then come forth words of wisdom." "Amo" is one of our number, who works hard and accomplishes much. No task is too arduous for her mastery. Though she is a bit silent and reserved, yet at times, she is witty and full of fun. She is kind-hearted and always puts others before self. Our one regret is that she will not be with us next session.

LUCY REID BROWN

Brown

Woodville, Virginia

Argus Literary Society, Censor '21-'22; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A. Membership Committee, '21-'22; Servers' Tennis Club.

When you think of Lucy Reid, you think of straightforwardness and independence. These combined with her attractiveness and neat appearance make her stand out among her fellow students. Frankness is her nature, and all are very wary of her because she lets them see themselves as others see them.

MILDRED BERKLEY BROWNING

Orange, Virginia

Pierian Literary Society; Orange Club;
Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Loyal, sincere, and worthwhile with a depth that is beyond mere surface appearance, that is Mildred. Few of us, truly know her, but those of us who have gone after her friendship have found it well worth the quest. There is about her the sort of steadfastness that means comfort and help when things go wrong, and the sort of dependability that means a true, unchanging friend.

MARY LEWIS BRYANT

Tandidges, Virginia

De-Ho-Ec Club, Vice-President '22-'23;
Pierian Literary Society; Athletic Association;
Y. W. C. A.; Rural Club; Ellen
Richards Club; Base Ball Team, '22.

She is just a pure, sweet, lovable girl, a true friend and cheerful companion. That's Mary Lewis! If she has ever had a trouble, she has never shown it, for she always greets you with a smile. It is needless to say that she is popular and everyone loves her. We need not wonder why she is majoring in Home Economics.

FRANCES DUNN BUTLER

Frank

Clifton Forge, Virginia

Ruffner Literary Society, Reporter '22;
Y. W. C. A.; Alleghany Club.

What is so rare as a frown on Frances' face? Always happy, always kind, always eager to aid anyone; so we find her in school life. She is a good student and witty companion, but best of all, always a friend and a favorite. She is an all-round good pal.

SALLY ELIZABETH BUTTON

Sally

Rixeyville, Virginia

Travelers Club; Y. W. C. A.

Gentle, timid and retiring, yet a friend to all; Elizabeth is one of those admirable persons of whom it may be well said that the more you know her the better you like her. She shows unusual ability in her studies and whenever she speaks, she says something worth while. No truer picture can be found of her than in that old saying, "Still waters run deep."

KATHLEEN MACARTHY CARROLL

Kitty

Charlottesville, Virginia

Sigma Sigma Sigma; Pi Alpha; Cotillion Club; Dramatic Club; Cunningham Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Membership Committee; F. F.; N. O. T.; D. I. R. K.

She can teach little children but she can also charm people and win many lasting friends. Kitty is stylish, good looking, and sociable. Her friends say "If you want that done go to Kitty!" There is no doubt in the minds of her school mates that Kitty will have a successful career and many true friends.

JESSIE CARTER

Martinsville, Virginia

Jessie is the kind of girl who has a winning personality and gives of herself to others. She is bright, cheerful and the center of all fun. She is a star in athletics and can be counted on for her heartiest support of all school activities.

JULIA WOLBERT CAVE

Judy

Charlottesville, Virginia

Junior Class, Secretary '22; Albermarle Club, Secretary '22; Dramatic Club, Property Manager; Orchestra; Athenian Literary Society; Student Standards Committee, '22-'23; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '22-'23.

Julia is the kind of girl who never tries to bluff her way for she is enterprising, studious and capable. Her forte is music, and we all predict for her a great future in the pursuing of her art. Julia does not believe in wasting words unnecessarily, but when the occasion demands it, she can certainly speak her mind. With all her dignity, she is clever, witty, and has her share of fun.

PAULINE CHAPMAN

Roanoke, Virginia

Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Roanoke Club; I. O. U.; Tennis Racquet Club; W. W.

Although Pauline's thoughts are not on school, she gets through with credit minus the worry and care, even occasionally showing sparks of genius. It might well be said "She has a little shadow" for she and Lois are seldom seen apart. Whatever her future may be, here's success to her!

ELIZABETH J. C. CHAPPELL

Big Liz

Meherrin, Virginia

Pierian Literary Society; Dramatic Club; Y. W. C. A.

"Liz" with her sweet smiling disposition and ever readiness to help her friends, is a pal to all. Whenever there is any fun on hand, "Liz" is sure to be there, though it is her chief delight to talk, and ride in a Ford runabout. However when called upon she can be dignity itself.

LOIS CHILDRESS

Roanoke, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; I. O. U.; W. W.; Roanoke Club; Tennis Club.

Lois is small in stature, but is more than "a little shadow." She is bright, attractive and peppy. Lois is the type of girl who cares little for rules and study, but much for dancing and fun. She will win her way through life by her smiling disposition.

MARY WILKINSON CLARKE

Amelia, Virginia

Sigma Sigma Sigma; D. I. R. K.; Athletic Association; Junior Basket ball team '21-'22; Varsity Squad '21-'22; Senior Basket Ball Team '22-'23; K. W.-E. E.; Racquetteer Tennis Club; B. T.; Dramatic Club; Y. W. C. A.; Cunningham Literary Society; Critic, Fall '22.

Just Mary and no more makes her loved by all her class mates! Her perfectly natural and frank way of expressing herself, her tactful dealings in everything has made us realize that these are qualities for which to strive. She is one of our natural beauties and her dark brown curly hair has always been a source of envy to her classmates. She seems to have been born under a lucky star, for she shines in athletics and dramatics. We know a brilliant future awaits her.

EULA MARGARETTE CLAUD

Drewryville, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Pierian Literary Society; Athletic Association! Southhampton Club.

Eula is charming in many ways but especially in her energetic way of doing things. She has won many friends in school who hated to see her leave in December. May success and happiness be yours, Eula.

VIOLET GLEASBY

Vi

West Point, Virginia

Glee Club; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

Violet! How like that fair flower you are, always bringing sunshine and gladness to the hearts of others with your winsome smile. "To be merry best becomes you, for without a question you were born in a merry hour!"

ARDELLE WELLS COGBILL

Boydon, Virginia

Zeta Tau; Y. W. C. A. Conference and Conventions Committee '22-'23; Athletic Association; Pierian Literary Society.

Many admirable traits make up Ardelle's attractiveness. She has a keen sense of humor, a sympathetic nature and genuine sincerity. She is ever thoughtful of others and pleasant. Her Grecian beauty and dignity make her very handsome in appearance.

ELIZABETH COLEMAN

Liz

Tibatha, Virginia

Athletic Association; Northern Neck Club; Y. W. C. A.

Studious, witty, and dignified when the occasion demands it, is Elizabeth. She succeeds in whatever she undertakes, and she is going to win success in life especially in the teaching profession.

LELIA RANDOLPH COLONNA

Hampton, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; I. K. U.; Athletic Association; Ruffner Literary Society, '21-'22.

She is sweet, studious, lovable and sincere. Now that may be a good deal to say about one girl, but everyone agrees that none of these words could be left out in an adequate description of Lelia. She is also endowed with a little mischievousness, and always ready for a good joke.

DELMA CLARE CONWAY

Dell

Boydton, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Delma is always studious, clever, gentle, refined, willing to give aid to others, but best of all, dependable. Her bright and cheerful personality has won the true love of many friends. These outstanding characteristics are an indication of her future success.

ANNIE LOUISE COOKE

Newsomes, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Southampton Club, '20-'21-'22.

Louise is small in stature, great in mind, and by her quiet unassuming good nature, has won for herself the high esteem of both her instructors and her schoolmates. She is a good student especially in her private correspondence course. She possesses a vivid imagination which serves her well in many instances. She is the student and friend whose memory will linger long, after the ties of personal association have ceased to echo along the corridors of time.

LOUISE CORLEY

Winnsboro, South Carolina

Pierian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Junior Auxiliary; Nominata Club.

Here's to Louise! She is one of the most obliging and generous persons it has been our lot to meet. May she rise to the heights toward which she is striving and may she make many more friends. We have no qualms about her success in her chosen career because conscientious work will always sustain her undertakings.

SUSIE F. CRAFT

Charlottesville, Virginia

Sigma Sigma Sigma; Mu Omega; Pierian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Altemarle Club; D. I. R. K.; Athletic Association.

Susie is a good student, and is interested in the school activities. Dignity and serious intentions are essential qualities in Susie's make up. She is very capable and always quietly climbing toward the heights, yet a good sport ready for fun at all times. In her life work, whatever it may be, she has our best wishes for a brilliant future.

ISABEL GLADYS CROWDER

June

Jeffress, Virginia

Jefferson Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Travelers Club.

Five feet, eight inches, mixed with soft, little ways; rather retiring and yet very winning when you get past the outer indifference; add to these a sweet personality and a head full of sense, and the result is Isabel. She has that rare quality of being the same wherever you see her, always friendly, always happy, and at all times interested in others.

GERTRUDE CRUMPLER

Suffolk, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.: Athletic Association.

Gertrude is small but in her are found qualities that make up her lovable disposition. She is full of fun, but there is a serious side to her as well. She is a very lovable girl and is popular with all her friends. She makes friends easily and will do what she can for them. Gertrude, we wish you much success in your life's work.

KATHLEEN GORDON CRUTE

Kitty

Farmville, Virginia

Athletic Association: Y. W. C. A.: Pierian Literary Society.

Kathleen is indeed "as sweet as Heaven's air can make her." She possesses such modest grace that one thinks her sweet and retiring yet she influences all with whom she comes in contact.

INDIANNA UNDERWOOD DARDEN

Smithfield, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.: Rural Club.

India Darden is a ray, far-reaching in kindness, naturalness, and power to penetrate into the hearts of everybody. She is one who is welcome everywhere. She thinks much and says little, but knows how and when to express an opinion.

LOUISE WINIFRED DAY

Pat

Clifton Forge, Virginia

Mandolin and Guitar Club; Orchestra; Music Committee, Y. W. C. A.; Athenian Literary Society; Jefferson Debating Society; Athletic Association.

A combination of good sportsmanship, sweetness, intellect, sincerity and good nature; all of these you will find in Louise. She is a good sport and a true friend. "To know her a little" is truly "to love her much."

ALICE REBECCA DEDMON

Becky

Chase City, Virginia

Vice-President, Mandolin and Guitar Club; Argus Literary Society; Glee Club; Y. W. C. A. Music Committee; D. I. R. K.; Athletic Association.

Songs and Becky—these two thoughts are most inseparable. With these, comes Becky's good nature and her generosity. She is a true friend and one who always can be depended upon. A good worker, a sunny disposition and an abundance of brains; what more could be desired of a model senior?

IRMA DICKENSON

Dick

Wallace, Virginia

Y. W. C. A., Religious Meetings Committee; I. K. U.; Mandolin and Guitar Club; Orchestra; Rural Club, Vice-President; Mission Band, Leader.

Although Irma has been at S. N. S. only one year, she has won for herself many friends. She is a typical Senior, with a ready and sunny smile and is the kind of pal who helps make life worth while. Irma is a girl who applies herself diligently to her work and is always willing to lend a helping hand to others.

GRACE DICKERSON

Dick

Kenbridge, Virginia

Glee Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Senior Basketball Team; Ruffner Literary Society, Treasurer.

Here's a girl worth having for a friend. She is true, sincere and attractive and has the sweetest smile imaginable. There are numerous accomplishments that belong to her which could be named, but we especially appreciate her ability as forward on the Senior Basketball Team.

ELIZABETH DULING

Pamplin, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

You cannot find a sweeter girl in the Normal School than Elizabeth. Her most striking characteristic is that which the Educational Department calls the "inquiring turn of mind" in other words, curiosity. She is rather inclined to tease and is so fond of jokes that she enjoys them even when she herself happens to be the victim. Let me give you a hint, that is, if you are contemplating any mischief, look for Elizabeth.

MABEL T. DULING

Pamplin, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

She does look dignified, doesn't she? But take the word of one who knows, she isn't as dignified as she looks! Mabel is a studious girl and is as conscientious as you find. You should see her with those glasses perched on her nose, and her head deep in a book. She will make a very successful teacher if she doesn't change her course in life.

VIRGINIAN

ROXIE DUNNING

Suffolk, Virginia

Y. W. C. A. Finance Committee '22-'23;
Athletic Association.

Two years ago Roxie came to us from the land of peanuts, Suffolk, to cast her lot with the class of '23. The first year of her school life was spent in studious obscurity, but this past year, well, she is now known and liked by everyone. Roxie is the type of girl whom everyone likes and hers should be a life of happiness.

ELLEN CELESTIAL EASLEY

Chatham, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Pierian Literary Society; Pittsylvania Club '21; Ellen Richards Club '20; Hiking Club '19-'20; Le Cercle Français '21; Travelers Club '22.

A mixture of wit and fun and steadfastness, with a great deal of kindness; that's Ellen. Have you the "blues"? Then go to Ellen and her happy, optimistic way will soon turn those "blues" some other color. We would not dare call her a book worm, neither would we accuse her of brilliancy, yet she is always prepared to hold her own.

LUCIE MARIE FARRAR

Clifton Forge, Virginia

Y. W. C. A. Alumnae Committee '22-'23, President, '23-'24; Ruffner Literary Society; Alleghany Club '22-'23.

When Lucille is not studying civics, her favorite pastime is talking. She has the happy knack of knowing when to study and when to play, and never fails to get A on a subject. She has a magnetic personality which makes people love her. She is always ready to lend a hand when needed, and is always dependable, sweet and true.

MARGARET GOODE FINCH

Monnie

Chase City, Virginia

Zeta Tau; Y. W. C. A., Service Committee '21-'22; Cabinet '22-'23; Student Government Committee '21-'22; Cunningham Literary Society; Vice-President '21-'22; Junior Basketball Team '21-'22; Senior Class, Treasurer, '22-'23; Athletic Association, Secretary and Treasurer, '22-'23.

The new girl loves her for her sympathy and helpfulness, the class-mate for her willingness and loyalty, the teacher for her earnestness and studiousness. A character strong and ready to battle against life's temptations; a personality winning and helpful in its uplifting influence; ideals pure and high; faith steadfast and true; such it is that make up Margaret.

HELEN LEAKE FITCH

Lynchburg, Virginia

Sigma Sigma Sigma; Mu Omega; Argus Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Alumnae Committee; Athletic Association; D. I. R. K.; Coiffion Club; Lynchburg Club.

Helen is the kind of girl who always gets a bid to the college "bops." You wouldn't wonder at this if you knew her, for she is pretty, attractive and can certainly dance. She certainly lives up to the old saying, "When she works she works and when she plays she plays."

DORIS B. FLETCHER

Parksley, Virginia

Glee Club; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A. Religious Meetings Committee; Eastern Shore Club; Travelers Club.

Doris moves in an atmosphere of peace and calmness. Her pleasant manner and voice make her welcome and an agreeable companion at all times. She is true, sincere and conscientious always.

VIRGINIAN

SUSIE VANN FLOYD

Hilton Village, Virginia

Y. W. C. A., Vice-President, '22-'23; Morning Watch Committee, Chairman Spring '22; Athenian Literary Society, Treasurer Fall '22; Newport News Club, Vice-President '22-'23; Dramatic Club, Advertising Manager '22-'23; Athletic Association.

Susie has many friends in school, and her pleasant disposition draws people to her. For sympathy and help in any kind of trouble, Susie is the one to seek, for she knows how much a smile and an encouraging word helps when things begin to go wrong. She gives to the world some of the natural love of her happy soul.

MARY VENABLE FORBES

Midget

Farmville, Virginia

Jefferson Literary Society, Vice-President '22; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Campus League '20-'23; El Circulo Espanol; Le Cercle Français.

What good is there that cannot be said about Midget? She is not the kind of a girl that is a friend for a day, but she is a true, sincere friend for good. Her good qualities are too numerous to enumerate.

FLORENCE VIRGINIA FORD

Ginca

Kingsford, Virginia

Athletic Association; Ruffner Literary Society; Y. W. C. A. Religious Meetings Committee.

Virginia is just Virginia, and there is no one else like her. Possessing a heart as big as you find and a nature as sincere and steadfast as anyone could wish, she makes an ideal friend. Her sense of humor is delightful and her spontaneous chuckle quite irresistible.

MARION EMMA FORD

Kingsford, Virginia

Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Ruffner Literary Society.

To say Marion is kind hearted is expressing mildly the wonderfully sympathetic nature that she possesses. She is always a true friend and one who can be depended upon through adversity as well as success. Marion also possesses that wit which lends variety to our school days. What is better than a kind and understanding nature?

KATHERINE FOSTER

Farmville, Virginia

Kindergarten Club; Y. W. C. A.

So attractive is her personality, and so dignified is her way of handling it, that it is good to call her friend. These qualities together with honesty and straightforwardness make her liked by everyone.

VIRGINIA FOX

Foxie

Ashland, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Traveler's Club; Ruffner Literary Society.

Virginia is very quiet and reserved, but when once you get below the surface, you find a heart of pure gold. She is conscientious in all that she does and is always ready to help others.

VIRGINIAN

KATHERINE FRAY

Kitty

Madison, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Pierian Literary Society.

Kitty is just one of those sweet, unaffected girls that everyone loves. She has a pair of wonderful, brown eyes which, when once looked into, are never forgotten. Though she has not been at S. N. S. long, her influence is felt already. Kitty believes there is a time for work and a time for play and though she conscientiously does her work, she loves to have a good time.

MARY ELIZABETH FUQUA

Fuqie

Prospect, Virginia

Pierian Literary Society; De-Ho-Ec Club; Y. W. C. A.

"Fuqie," as she is called, is a good, all-round girl, full of fun and always ready to help you in any way that she can. She's one of the girls that takes life as it comes and lets by-gones be by-gones, looking on the bright side of things that can't be helped. She is a jolly companion, a true friend and a good sport.

CATHERINE ALICE GABLE

Kitten

Covesville, Virginia

Y. W. C. A. Publicity Committee '22-'23; Religious Meetings Committee '21-'22; Dramatic Club; Wardrobe Mistress; Virginian, Assistant Art Editor; Athletic Association; Traveler's Club; Mandolin-Guitar Club; Jefferson Literary Society.

Catherine's sweet, winsome manner and cheerful disposition have made her popular with everyone. She is most efficient in her studies and is well versed in the fact that there is a time for work and a time for play.

CABELL GANNAWAY

Tick

Draper, Virginia

Gamma Theta; Pi Alpha; W. A. N. K.; U-Et-R; Cotillion Club; Jefferson Literary Society; Basketball Team, Manager '19; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Pulaski Club. Treasurer '19; Dramatic Club.

Cute, country Cabell—You generally think of milk-maids and rural belles when you speak of the country, but "Tick" has all the snap and style of the most sophisticated of girls. Because of this, she easily won her place as eutest in the Senior Class, and she deserves it. Cabell also has her serious side, if she did not, she never would be the excellent teacher she is.

ELIZABETH BEVERLY GARDEN

Bet

Prospect, Virginia

Athletic Association; Argus Literary Society. Y. W. C. A.

"Bet", the name itself is sufficient to express love, sincerity, truth and all that would make an ideal girl. Bet is a good old sport and just the kind of girl who is loved and admired by all who know her.

EDNA GERTRUDE GARNET

Eddie

Farmville, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Glee Club.

We all have one hobbie, but "Eddie" is especially blessed as she has three. They are music, teaching, and teasing in all of which she excels. We know that she will make a success in teaching as she has in school.

CLAUDIA GILCHRIST

Columbia, South Carolina

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Argus Literary Society; Traveler's Club; Nominva Club; Le Cercle Français.

Claudia is a true friend and admirable companion. Her smiling face and wistful manner helps to brighten the lives of all with whom she comes in contact. Everybody likes Claudia. Why? Because she is just—Claudia. There's not a better, all-round girl in school, one who is filled with class and school spirit.

MARY LOFTEN GILLIAM

Yale, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Rural Club; Traveler's Club; Junior Baseball Team '22; Jefferson Literary Society.

Mary is a quiet, cheerful and amiable friend at all times. She is always ready to help and give suggestions and seems to always have plenty of time, full of pep, too, and seems to enjoy every hour of the day. Hail to a true friend!

LOUISE CABELL GILMER

Lyneburg, Virginia

Sigma Sigma Sigma; Mu Omega; Cunningham Literary Society; Athletic Association; Cotillion Club; Y. W. C. A.; Lynchburg Club; Dramatic Club; W. A. N. K.; Kindergarten Club.

Cabell talks incessantly. If you hear a low chattering in Senior Row, don't be alarmed; 'tis only Cabell explaining. She is always willing to help some one in need. If there is anything difficult to be done, "Oh, there's Cabell, she'll do it." She takes an active part in all school activities. Here's to one who is a friend to all!

MARGARET RAY GLENN

Red

Prospect, Virginia

Pierian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.

Margaret is always ready with watchful eye when fun is mentioned. However, with the sense of humor and fun-loving disposition, she does not forget the real purpose of the school, her studies. To these, she is always faithful, as her record will show. Here's to Margaret of the smiling face and cheery word; a good pal!

DAISY ROSE GOODMAN

Doe

Portsmouth, Virginia

Athletic Association; El Círculo Español; Le Cercle Français; Portsmouth Club; Jefferson Literary Society.

Daisy's pleasant smile and jolly disposition have worked their way in our hearts. She keeps a place there by her energy and ability along varied lines. We predict success for you, Daisy.

MARTHA DABNEY GOODWIN

Dare

Scottsville, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; World Fellowship Committee '22-'23; Athletic Association; Servers Tennis Club; Albemarle Club; De-Ho-Ec Club.

Dabney is just about the best friend a girl ever had. She is ever cheerful, happy and gay, and is one who thinks of the good of others as she goes along. A light heart and a happy mind make her a pleasant companion for all who know her. Dabney loves S. N. S., but just ask her about Scottsville—There's where the James rolls by.

ELSIE GRAY

Boykins, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Southampton Club.

Elsie is always ready for a good time, and usually has it too. However, she doesn't let her lessons suffer especially Civics, as her interests there will testify. She is a girl who attracts, and she has many friends who love her. S. N. S., and the class of '23 will miss her, but will always remember her.

LILLIAN VIRGINIA GRIFFIN

Chuckatuck, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Rural Life Club; Nausemond Club; Athletic Association.

"What is the use of hurrying, we have plenty of time," says Lillian as she walks into class just in time to answer to her name. And again she makes that remark as she slips into the dining room as the door is being closed. We hope if she ever teaches that her school hours will be from ten until two, so she will have ample time in which to slumber in peace.

LAURA VASHTI GRIGG

Vash

Athletic Association; Campus League; Merian Literary Society, Censor, Fall '22; Y. W. C. A.

Vash is a girl of trust and truest blue, with sterling character, yet possessing just enough foolishness, and light-heartedness to make her an ideal pal.

MARTHA GUTHRIE

Peggie

Guinea Mills, Virginia

Buckingham Club; De-Ho-Ee Club; Athletic Association; Ruffner Literary Society.

Martha is one of our attractive girls. She believes in taking all that life will offer, and she goes along having as many good times as she can. When we are in need of cheer, we go to Martha.

VIRGINIA WHITEHURST HADEN

Gin

Crozet, Virginia

Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

Laugh and the world laughs with you! This is Gin's motto in life. In the most solemn occasions, Gin can find something amusing. She's always good company, especially when you have the blues. She can be serious too, and her common sense has made her a very capable student. She is popular, jolly, and optimistic, which makes her a worthwhile friend.

ELSIE MAE HAILEY

Bill

Drakes Branch, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.

If you are looking for a good companion who is interested and willing to help in everything, call on Elsie. She came to us this year from Radford and is indeed an addition to the class of '23.

NELLIE VERNON HARDY

Nellie

Victoria, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Glee Club; Jefferson Literary Society; Rural Life Club; Mandolin-Guitar Club.

Nell's good natured manner is her most noticeable and lovable characteristic. Together with her winning personality and sweet voice, she has the remarkable faculty of keeping smiling and pleasant. Nell takes as her motto, "Smile and the world smiles with you."

ZERNIE PEARL HARMON

Covington, Virginia

Ruffner Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Alleghany Club.

There are so many nice things to say about Zernie that it is hard to know where to begin. To know her is to love her, for she has ever been the truest of pals and confidantes. Her one hobby is buying peanuts, and we can always tell when she has received a check from home, for she immediately pays a visit to Gilliams or the tea room.

EULA HARRIS

Eula-Pula

Nipper, Virginia

Zeta Tau; Y. W. C. A. Membership Committee; Pierian Literary Society; Junior Committee; Athletic Association; Junior Basketball '21-'22; Senior Basketball '22-'23.

Friendship is somehow given easily to Eula, and what is more rare, one gives respect with the friendship. Sincere, loyal, generous, and game to the last, how could one help it?

Eula's friendship too, once given, is a thing to be treasured, for one knows that it will not change with time and circumstances.

EUFAULA LUCILE HARRIS

Ceil

Keyesville, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Athenian Literary Society.

What's the use of saying anything about "Ceil"? Everybody who has ever known her can only say nice things about her. She is a very quiet, modest and dignified girl who is worth knowing. She is a true friend, and when you know her you have to love her.

MYRTLE ELIZABETH HARVEY

Myrt

Lynchburg, Virginia

Athletic Association; Kindergarten Club; Lynchburg Club; Jefferson Literary Society.

"Myrt" is unusually good natured, although in a quiet way. She is sympathetic and loyal always. She has smoothed over many hard places for her friends, who cherish her friendship as the best and truest.

RUBYE LUCILLE HEATWOLE

"Rube"

Covington, Virginia

Glee Club; Athletic Association; Alleghany Club, President; Y. W. C. A.; Traveler's Club.

Rubye is a sweet little maid who has endeared herself in the hearts of all who have known her. Fun-loving and mischievous, she trips through the Normal with light and gay steps. Rubye can be just as conscientious and as serious as anyone else when there is need. This little girl from Covington will be long remembered by her friends, and their best wishes go out to her that she may make good in all that she undertakes.

CLARA VIRGINIA HEFLIN

Lucketts, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Rural Club; Rural Volunteer Band; Traveler's Club; Ruffner Literary Society; Junior Baseball Team '22.

Of course we all know her. The first time we saw her play baseball we admired her, and the first time she smiled at us we loved her. She is always happy and cheerful and seems brightest when things look darkest. She is a very studious and dignified Senior in the class-room but just as jolly and sociable outside. Clara, with your winning smiles and graceful ways, we prophesy a bright and happy future for you.

DAMA HILL

Mitchells, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Traveler's Club; Jefferson Literary Society.

Dama has a rather keen sense of humor beneath all her quietness and dignity. Although she is quiet and unassuming as the old saying is "Still waters run deep," so we shall not be surprised to hear that some day she has won great fame, especially in la clase espanola.

IDA HILL

Jim

Mitchells, Virginia

Traveler's Club; Y. W. C. A.; Jefferson Literary Society.

The other twin—same as above.

LUCILLE HOGGE

Wiconico, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Peggy is one of the jolliest girls of the Senior Class. All the world is carefree and happy to her and she strives to make it so for her friends. Her motto is "I don't bother study and study doesn't bother me."

AMY LOLYS HOLLAND

Windsor, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Jefferson Literary Society; Rural Life Club.

Mischievous, fun-loving and dependable, that's Amy. Her unfailing good humor, practical sense and witty remarks make a personality which is irresistible. We like to hear you laughing your way through the world, Amy.

NORA MAE HOLMES

Union Level, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Rural Club.

Here's to Nora Mae! She is the kind of a girl everybody likes. She is lively, attractive and witty and has plenty of ability, energy and determination. With all she is a good sport, and we predict that her sincerity, her strong personality, and her high ideals will bring her great success in whatever career she undertakes.

VIRGINIAN

SARAH DIVINE HORNE

Wadesboro, Virginia

El Circulo Espanol; Le Circle Francaise;
Athletic Association; Nonlava Club.

Sarah is one of our "new" Seniors, but already she has won her place in our class. Her keen intelligence, efficiency and sincerity are qualities we all admire. In this we seem to voice the sentiments of Some One in North Carolina, if the candy and mail that daily arrive for her at S.N.S. may be taken as a guide. Teaching may be an honorable profession, but there are nevertheless others that are more desirable, at least so thinks Sarah.

FRANCES REDD HOWARD

Little Frankie

South Boston, Virginia

Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A. Service Committee; Traveler's Club; Cunningham Literary Society.

Look out for the merry girl, and you will always find Frances. Laugh and the world laughs with you has been her motto which has won her so many friends at S.N.S. Early lovable characteristics have endeared Frances to all.

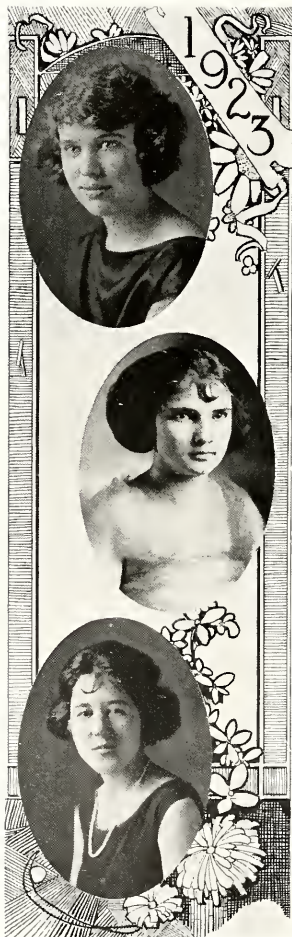

MARY ELIZABETH HUNT

Farmville, Virginia

Mu Omega; ΔΣΧ; Cotillion Club; Dramatic Club; Athenian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.

Apparent indifference may be one of Mary's outstanding characteristics, but underneath it there is a friend worth having. Loyal and sincere, her friendship is not one to be lightly won and lightly lost, but rather one that lasts and grows with age.

NANCY HUYETT

Charlottesville, Virginia

Sigma Sigma Sigma; Mu Omega; Pierian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Albemarle Club, Treasurer '21-'22; D. I. R. K.; U-Et-R; Athletic Association.

Every girl in school loves Nancy, for who could help it? She meets you with a smile and a cheery greeting. All the points which go to make up a true and loyal friend are hers, and the greatest good fortune we can wish is that she may occupy a place in the world similar to the one she has held with her classmates and friends at dear old S.N.S.

CLARA FLORENCE JENKINS

Julie

Greenbay, Virginia

Rural Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association '21-'22.

Rarely does Clara hurt herself by burning the midnight oil, and yet, when reports come around, she usually comes out on top.

May the future be a glorious dream for you, "Julie", and may you awaken only to a reality of success!

MARY LUCILE JENNINGS

Lu

Cartersville, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Rural Club; Athletic Association; Athenian Literary Society; Cumberland Club, Secretary.

Quiet, unselfish, sincere, good natured, intelligent, these are a few of the qualities which Lucile possesses. She is just as full of fun as she can be, always in a good humor and always wearing the brightest of smiles. Her smile is the kind which brightens many a weary way and signifies her desire to help everyone.

VIRGINIAN

MARY PATTIE JETER

Pat

Belona, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Rural Club, President '22-'23; Athenian Literary Society; Amelia Club '21; Rural Life Club; Y. W. C. A. World Fellowship Committee '20-'21; Le Cercle Francaise '20-'21; Athletic Association; Traveler's Club.

Pattie is ever considerate and thoughtful for the happiness of others. Her sympathy flows out to all as her many friends know. She always has time for others, and for good hard study too.

BERNICE LESTER JOHNSON

Grunny

Richmond, Virginia

Argus Literary Society; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A. Finance Committee '18-'19; Third Year High School, Secretary and Treasurer '19-'20; Le Cercle Francaise, Treasurer '20-'21.

A mixture of oddity, frolic, fun that's Bernice. Odd! Why there's no one at S.N.S. who is just her type. It's all her own. Sad to relate Bernice has a very serious weakness and that's loafing. Here is luck to you rolicing, frolicing Bernice, and may old Father Time give much happiness to you.

KATE JOHNSON

Tazewell, Virginia

Delta Sigma Chi; Pi Alpha; Cunningham Literary Society; Student Committee '22-'23; Y. W. C. A. Alumnae Committee; Athletic Association; U-Et-R; D. I. R. K.

If all of us kept as strict a watch on ourselves and let other people alone as much as Kate does, we would be much better. Constancy is her outstanding virtue, and we cannot but praise so rare a gift.

MARY SUE JOLLIFF

Jolly

Petersburg, Virginia

Kindergarten Club; Jefferson Literary Society; Athletic Association; Traveler's Club; Y. W. C. A.

'Tis hard to get round some people, 'tis hard to see through some people, but how much harder to get at some people! What can you do? Just gradually wait for them to unfold the life within. After you get that far with Mary Sue you're all right, and so is she. She's carefree and happy, laughing at this world of woe.

EMILY LOUISE VIRGINIA JONES

Slim

Holland, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Glee Club; Ruffner Literary Society; Rural Club.

Such a little girl with such a long name, though she is better known as Slim. Her sunny disposition and bright smile have gained her many friends. May they gain her many more.

NELL ESTELLE JONES

Nell

Boyce, Virginia

De-Ho-Ec Club; Service Tennis Club '21-'22; Y. W. C. A.; Ellen Richards Club '21-'22; Ruffner Literary Society, President '22; Athletic Association; Racquetteer Tennis Club.

Nell is bright, cheerful and of a winning disposition, a very companionable girl. If we were poets her hair and eyes would inspire us to endless song. There is more to tell, in fact so much to tell that it would be an endless song of praise indeed.

MYRTLE M. KAYTON

Farmville, Virginia

Small in stature, great in mind is Myrtle. By her quiet, unassuming good nature, she has won for herself the high esteem of both her teachers and her schoolmates. As a friend she is among the truest. Myrtle is a most persistent worker and a thorough student. She heartily agrees with the poet in that "A little humor now and then is relished by the best of men."

MARGARET PENDLETON KITE

Peg

Orange, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Pierian Literary Society; Orange Club; Le Cerele Français; El Circulo Español.

If you want to have a jolly good time, just call on Margaret, and she'll make it for you. Although she is laughing and bright, behind those dancing blue eyes lies a heart strong and true. She is a friend worth having.

SADIE J. KOBRE

Jimmie

Lynchburg, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Jefferson Literary Society, President, winter and fall terms '22, Vice-President '23; Lynchburg Club; Ellen Richards Club '22.

Jimmie is just the girl you can depend on to accomplish everything. Her cleverness and versatility quite amaze us and make us wonder how so much knowledge can be stored in the brain of one so small. Her very name stands for helpfulness and dependability as both faculty and student body at S.N.S. recognize. A successful professional career awaits you, Sadie.

ALICE THORNHILL LANG

Slats

Chase City, Virginia

Glee Club; Y. W. C. A.; Jefferson Literary Society; Athletic Association; Rural Life Committee.

"Still water runs deep". Although Thorney is quiet and retiring there is a spark of wit that flashes out now and then. We find a quality even more valuable than this, that of always helping and serving others. Thorney has been a conscientious, good student at S.N.S., winning the admiration of many.

WINNIE LANG

Temperanceville, Virginia

Eastern Shore Club; De-Ho-Ee Club; Y. W. C. A.

Winnie comes from the Eastern Shore, and with her loyalty and generosity is a true representative of that section. If you are lonesome or out "o'sorts" just call on Winnie, for she can always find some amusement. Here's to your success, Winnie!

DOROTHY LALL LANGSLOW

Dot

Morrison, Virginia

Pi Kappa Omega; Assistant Editor-in-Chief "Rotunda," '22-'23; Assistant Editor-in-Chief "The Virginian;" Student Government Committee '22-'23; Newport News Club, Secretary '22-'23; Athenian Literary Society, Treasurer, Spring '22, Vice-President, Fall '22; Y. W. C. A.; Social Committee '22-'23; Campus League '22-'23; Athletic Association.

Dorothy is just the best sort of a pal, the kind who fits in with all your moods. When one is ready for a genuine good time, it's hard to find a truer or more fun-loving sport. There are few girls so absolutely dependable. She has plenty of school spirit and figures largely in all school activities, and always gaining new friends with her sunny smile and sweet disposition. Here's to an "all-round" girl!

SERENA PAULINE LEA

Polly

Massie's Mill, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Server's Tennis Club; Jefferson Literary Society; Recording Secretary '21-'22; Ellen Richards Club; De-Ho-Ec Club; Nelson County Club.

"Polly" is always ready for fun and a frolic. You can tell that by her sparkling eyes and bewitching smiles. When you know her you will love her. She is gentle, kind, reserved, and a good friend indeed.

MARY JULIAN LEECH

Mary Jay

Murat, Virginia

Argus Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Traveler's Club; Rockbridge Club

For Mary Julia's many notable qualities and particular talents, we need only refer to her instructors and class mates

Old pal, the toast we drink to you is that the future years may fulfill half the aspirations your eyes seem to say you have. Remember the lines "O, Wind! if Winter comes can Spring be far behind?"

VIRGINIA LINDSEY

Jinks

Farmville, Virginia

Argus Literary Society; Athletic Association; De-Ho-Ec Club; Y. W. C. A.

Jinks is best known in the Science Hall, but to know her is to love her. She has a heart as big as she is and a desire many times as great to help whenever, wherever and whomever she might.

NELLIE PEARL LOCKARD

Covington, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Pierian Literary Society; Alleghany County Club.

Nellie, one of our most attractive Seniors, always wears a smile, keeping up the spirit of her class mates. Periods of "blues" are very short-lived with her for her bright smile and happy manner are always uppermost. Nellie is sure to succeed in everything she attempts for she is brave, takes life easy, and has a determined manner.

VIOLA McNAMEE

Farmville, Virginia

Quiet, gentle and sweet is Viola, and no better friend can be found anywhere. Although she doesn't live in the Dormitory, she has many friends in S.N.S. and elsewhere. She is the lover of music who always finds a place waiting for her in the church choir. Her forte is music, and we all predict for her a great future.

MARGARET MASON

Peggy

Clarksville, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Social Service Committee; Jefferson Literary Society; Rural Club; Athletic Association; Representative Student Volunteer Council '22-'23.

If you want a good friend, choose Margaret. She is a generous, sympathetic, good-natured and lovable girl. She is never too busy to lend a helping hand, nor to speak a word of cheer.

MIN MAE MASON

Pearisville, Virginia

Delta Sigma Chi; Mu Omega; Cotillion Club; Owls; D. I. R. K.; Dramatic Club; Athletic Association; Argus Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.

Min is a happy-go-lucky girl who makes the most of life, and lets her lessons take care of themselves. She is general favorite with all who are acquainted with her, and you know "great things come in small packages".

MARGARET MITCHELL MATHEWS

Maggie

Norfolk, Virginia

Pierian Literary Society; Athletic Association; Junior Basketball Team '21-'22; Senior Basketball Team '22-'23; Varsity Squad; Y. W. C. A.; Monogram Club.

Margaret is like "Brer Rabbit", she lies low and says nothing. One must be a good friend indeed to really know her, she is so quiet and retiring. She is the kind of girl the school could not get along without.

MARY ELIZA MAUPIN

Charlottesville, Virginia

Y. W. C. A. Service Committee '22-'23; Argus Literary Society; Rural Club, Treasurer '22-'23; Athletic Association.

No more obliging personage can be found in school than Mary. Sweet tempered, kind hearted and lovable, she is always ready to assist where she can be of help and to aid, boost and make a success of whatever she undertakes.

HELEN THOMAS MILLER

Washington, Virginia

Athletic Association; Pierian Literary Society; De-Ho-Ec Club, Secretary; Glee Club.

Helen is a good sport with a kind heart, a wise head, and a pleasing countenance. Especially is she noted for her sound judgment and calm deliberation. If you want to know whether a banana is digestible when chewed, and who rules the Sandwich Islands, ask Helen, she knows!

FLOSSIE MITCHELL

Emporia, Virginia

A sweet, modest girl is our Flossie. She is a true, worthy friend, loved and respected by all who know her; bright and cheerful at all times and a companion in all of your moods. She is always eager to be helpful whenever she is able. Her humor is always present, and she is ready to join in any fun at the right time. Although she does not take a leading part she is a force behind every movement.

BURTON MOHR

Delta Sigma Chi; Mu Omega; X. W. C. A.; Argus Literary Society; Cotillion Club; D. I. R. K.

Spoiled, did you say? Yes, sure, that's Burton. It's become quite the habit of her friends to wait on her and not to raise the slightest complaint. She has the accomplishment of hiding the most mischievous designs behind an expression that is only rivaled by that of "Innocence of Youth."

GLADYS MOORE

Prospect, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.

Have you ever seen those girls who move along so easily and never worry, but somehow seem to get there just the same? Gladys is one of that happy number. To see Gladys one would think her rather shy but to know her, she is an all-round friend. She says she is interested in her work, but her many letters from "Ed" seem more interesting. We can certainly say for her that she has a heart of gold!

LULA ARDELLE MOORE

Clarksville, Virginia

Athletic Association; Athenian Literary Society; Traveler's Club; Y. W. C. A. Service Committee.

True to herself, true to her friends, true to her duties always. This is especially true of Ardelle. She has won many friends and often proves a friend in need. She has three characteristics, to those who do not know her she is shy, to those who are just acquainted with her she is bright, to those who know her she is sweet. Our good wishes go with her. May she always succeed in all that she undertakes.

PATIENCE MOORE

Farmville, Virginia

Sweet, loyal, and loving is Patience. Honesty, truth and steadfastness are her greatest qualities combined with a desire to do good to others and help as much as she is able. She is ready to fall into your mood at all times and her humor never fails her; ready for fun or mischief at all times. She is a leader without a leading part and a force without anyone realizing it.

KATHLEEN MORGAN

Kitty

Columbia, South Carolina

Gamma Theta; Mu Omega; Cotillion Club; W. A. N. K.; U-et-R; Senior Class, Vice-President '22-'23; Argus Literary Society; Glee Club; Athletic Association; Student Standards Committee, Secretary '21; Y. W. C. A. Music Committee '22-'23; Server's Tennis Club; Junior Basketball Team; Varsity Squad, '21-'22; Senior Basketball Squad '22-'23; Kindergarten Club '21-'22; Virginian, Editor-in-Chief '22-'23; Monogram Club.

Kitty is one of the most outstanding girls in school. She seems to have the happy faculty of bringing success to the many activities which enlist her interest. Sincerity, school spirit, talent, "pep", dependability, and a certain rare loveliness are the qualities that have endeared Kitty to our hearts, and that have made us glad to be her friends and schoolmates.

MARTHA FRANCES MORTON

Frank

Crewe, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Ruffner Literary Society.

Independence, ambition, idealism, and determination, plus a charming personality make Frances. She is particularly fond of music, dancing and books. Although an industrious little girl, she is never too busy to smile and pass a pleasant word. Good luck and a most successful future, Frances!

DOMA ROBERTA MOSELY

Ebony, Virginia

Ruffner Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

A loyal friend, genial and sympathetic with a wonderful personality. Doma is good-natured, always wearing a smile and ever ready to help.

May your winning ways and genial disposition carry you a long way to your desired goal, Doma!

FAY MOSS

Spartanburg, South Carolina
Kindergarten Club; Y. W. C. A.; Orchestra.

Those who are fortunate enough to enjoy the friendship of Fa-Mous will tell you the longer you know her the better you love her. She is always ready to enter whole-heartedly into everything. Fa-Mous has plenty of ability, energy, and determination. With all this she is a good sport, and we predict that her sincerity, her strong personality, and her ideals will bring her great success with her violin, or whatever career she undertakes.

REBECCA AGNES MOTLEY

"Beccah"

Chatham, Virginia

Cunningham Literary Society; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Ellen Richards Club '20-'21; Pittsylvania Club, Vice-President '21; Travelers Club; Le Cercle Français; Hiking Club '19-'20; Racquetier Tennis Club.

An all-round girl is Rebecca, a good student, and a good sport, and one who has won her way into the hearts of us all. She has a happy and sunny disposition, and by her sweetness and friendliness she has endeared herself to her classmates. Beccah, we all wish you the best of success in the future.

LUCILLE FRANCES MYRICK

Boykins, Southampton County, Va.

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Jefferson Literary Society; Southampton Club Vice-President '22-'23.

Lucille is a quiet little member of our Senior class, but one well worth knowing. According to our twentieth century critics we should not judge a book by its cover. Although Lucille is small in stature, her knowledge increases like the waters of the mighty ocean.

GRETCHEN OBENSHAIN

Buchanan, Virginia

Glee Club; Cunningham Literary Society;
Athletic Association; Student Government
Committee, '22-'23; Zeta Tau; Y. W. C. A.
Music Committee, '22-'23.

Who could ever forget her glossy black hair, two merry little dimples, and soft brown eyes with such a wondrous, witching charm, yet from which ever shine the light of worth, courage, and honor, true manifestations of a loyal and noble soul within? She is faithful to all duties, modest in all actions, and a friend to all beings, overbrimming in fun, jollity, and wit, yet possessing gentle reserve, judgment and knowledge enriched with a delight in music and voice.

ELIZABETH OGDEN

"Liz"

Coleman's Falls, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Traveler's Club; El Círculo Español. Le Cercle Français; Junior Auxiliary.

One has to be constantly associated with a character like Liz to appreciate her sincerity and real worth. She is always loyal and true to her friends, a good sport, a comrade and a dear old pal. So here's to you, Liz, may the best of luck be with you always.

MILDRED CONWAY PARKER

Franklin, Virginia

Argus Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Glee Club; Southampton Club.

Nothing is better than a true friend. This is characteristic of Mildred. She is always on hand with her "uke," cheering the girls along. These with many other good qualities make her a favorite who will be missed from S. N. S. She carries with her the best wishes of her classmates for a bright and successful career.

SUE BROWN PARKER

Littleton, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.: Athletic Association.

To be quiet and dignified, and also a successful teacher in the Training School are qualities which one must needs be proud of. Sue has, then, every right to expect a bright future, for she has these and many other worth while characteristics.

LOUISE PARSONS

"Parsons"

Petersburg, Virginia

Gamma Theta; Pi Alpha; Cotillion Club; Argus Literary Society, First Vice-President '22; Varsity Basketball Squad '22; Junior Basketball Squad '22; Senior Representative; Manager of Senior Basketball Squad '23; Senior Representative on Athletic Council; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A. Finance Committee '22-'23; Servers Tennis Club '22; W. A. N. K.; O. T.; Monogram Club.

On with the game! Parsons is here! Let pep be unconfined! No game, in fact nothing, would be complete without Louise. She needs no introduction, nor any writings for the class of '23, but for the benefit of the world at large and those who read these pages, let us say something of Parsons. With all her pep and spirit she is true blue and one who will never be forgotten at S. N. S. Not only capable is she, but loved and admired by all who are fortunate enough to know her.

CAROLINE MORTIMER PAYNE

"Carolyn"

Roanoke, Virginia

Zeta Tau; Rotunda Staff, Assistant Circulation Manager, '22-'23; Pierian Literary Society, First Vice-President fall '22; Y. W. C. A.; Y-Store Committee '21-'22; Service Committee '22-'23; Athletic Association; Roanoke Club, Secretary '22-'23.

There are three words that just naturally come together and describe Carolyn—capable, attractive, and lovable. Although she has figured largely in all school activities, it is her own personality that has gained such popularity for her. Here's wishing you all success, Caroline.

OLIVE PAYNE

Darlington Heights, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Fourth Year Basketball Team; Campus League Committee '22-'23; Pierian Literary Society.

Olive is a girl who never worries over work because she loses herself in her interest in the work, especially in teaching. She is a loyal colleague and a trustworthy, dependable friend.

ELIZABETH K. PEARMAN

"Kate"

Roanoke, Virginia

Athletic Association; Roanoke Club; Y. W. C. A.

Katharine, better known as Kate, is quite sedate and dignified despite the fact that she possesses an unusual amount of wit. She is amiable and exceptionally attractive.

HESTER ELIZABETH PEEBLES

"Pebbles"

Wakefield, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Rural Life Club; Athletic Association; Ruffner Literary Society, spring '22, Vice-President fall '22.

Hester is a sweet, quiet, steady girl, and just the kind upon whom you can depend. The longer you know Hester, the better you like her and the more you appreciate her real worth. Her modest demeanor and thoughtfulness of others have won the hearts of a great many at S. N. S.

VIRGINIAN

ANNE GLENN PERRY

"Little Perry"

Chase City, Virginia

Zeta Tau; Argus Literary Society; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.

It's easy to say Anne Glenn, but it is quite a different matter to tell Anne Glenn, for there are so many little side-lights to her personality. A good worker, a sunny disposition and an abundance of real knowledge, what more could be desired to make a "model Senior?"

ELLEN GERTRUDE PETERS

Franklin, Virginia

Student Government Committee '21-'22; Y. W. C. A., Service Committee, '21-'22; Chairman Morning Watch Committee '22-'23; Argus Literary Society, Second Vice-President fall '22; Ellen Richards Club; Southampton Club, President '22-'23; Athletic Association.

Ellen is the happy-hearted sort of a girl that laughs, and laughs, and laughs, and everybody laughs with her—sometimes at her nonsense and sometimes at her laughter. Ellen is all that a girl should be, reserved, gay, good-natured, and beautiful. She is a true friend, a splendid student, and a hard worker of our Y. W. C. A. To know Ellen is to love her.

CORA MILDRED PHILLIPS

"Phil"

Pamplin, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Dramatic Club; Jefferson Literary Society.

Mildred is a very quiet and kind-hearted girl, with a sweet disposition and a gentle voice. She is witty enough to make her a good old pal, as well as a student of ability. With these characteristics, she has won a host of lasting friends.

JETTIE WILBURN PHIPPS

"Jett"

Clintwood, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

The more you know her, the more you like her. She doesn't believe in doing things half way. There is a perpetual race between her brain and her tongue. But both are out-classed by her pep when she really wants to do a thing.

HELEN ELIZABETH PIKE

Roanoke, Virginia

Roanoke Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Pierian Literary Society.

Helen is just the one to cheer us up. She always seems happy and does not worry until trouble comes to her. She has wit that drives away the blues even on rainy days and tides us over many a hard one. In her happy mood she wends her way through S. N. S. and we see every indication of success for her as a teacher.

JESSIE LEE PITTARD

"Pittard"

Buffalo Junction, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; De Ho Ec Club; Ellen Richards Club '21-'22; Rural Club; Traveler's Club; Athenian Literary Society.

It is only upon intimate acquaintance with Pittard that we learn what is that element in her character that makes her lovable. The reward for him who succeeds in breaking through Pittard's reserved exterior is a splendid companion, a girl who is studious and yet wide awake to everything about her. Pittard is blessed in abundance with those characteristics necessary for the successful teacher.

VIRGINIAN

HATTIE LeGRANDE PONTON

"Hat"

Ontario, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Junior Auxiliary; Athletic Association; El Circulo Español; Le Cercle Français; Travelers Club.

"Hat" is an all round good friend and seems ever ready to help anyone in trouble. She has sincerity and an unselfish disposition which win the hearts of her friends. She is always true to her duty and we feel sure that she will be successful in her life's work.

JANIE M. POTTER

Dillwyn, Virginia

Sigma Sigma Sigma; Zeta Tau; Cunningham Literary Society, Secretary '22; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; D. I. R. K.; Glee Club.

Here's to Janie, one who is a good pal, a true friend, and one of the finest girls in the class of '23. Janie has both physical beauty and nobility of character which make her attractive and lovable. Whatever she does, may the best of luck go with her always.

OLIVE F. POWELL

Belle Haven, Virginia

Y. W. C. A., Service Committee; Athletic Association; Travelers Club; Eastern Shore Club; Athenian Literary Society.

Olive is one of those sweet, quiet, reserved girls who, when really known, are the truest and most loyal friends. She has a great deal of fun about her when she is not too busy with her studies and always has something pleasant to say. A good student, a good friend and a good leader; she will be satisfied with nothing less than success.

LOVARD LEE PRIDDY

Keysville, Virginia

Argus Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Travelers' Club; Junior Basketball Squad '21-'22; Racquetier Tennis Club; B. T.

How would we ever do without Lovard? She tells us all the news, and tells it in such a clever witty way that we laugh, then laugh some more. Though originality and wit are strong characteristics, they are not her only ones. She is one of those rare girls who can write Senior songs.

MARY LYDIA QUARLES

Ashland, Virginia

Sigma Sigma Sigma; Pi Alpha; D. I. R. K.; N. O. T.; Cunningham Literary Society; Cotillion Club; Junior Basketball Squad; Varsity Squad; Y. W. C. A.; Music Committee; Athletic Association; Glee Club; Dramatic Club.

Mary Lydia, adorable and loved by all who know her, has a rare combination of brains and maidenly charms. She is a girl of variable moods, all of which are noble. Her talents also lie along many lines and she uses these gifts to glorify S. N. S. Whatever your life duties may be, Mary Lydia, we wish you the best of luck and success.

NINA QUARLES

Roanoke, Virginia

Delta Sigma Chi; Mu Omega; Roanoke Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Cotillion Club; D. I. R. K.; Athenian Literary Society.

Has anybody here seen Nina? If you see anyone different from anybody you ever saw that's Nina. A rare mixture of good looks, attractive personality and brains is she. Nina is a friend to all, and one you can surely depend upon.

EVA ROBINSON RADER

Murat, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Rural Club; Travelers Club.

Eva is very quiet, dignified, modest and hard to get acquainted with, though when you do know her she proves to be a true friend. "A friend in need is a friend indeed." She is a good student, very conscientious, and makes a success of whatever she undertakes. We are sure that you will have a successful career as a teacher, Eva.

MARY ELIZABETH RAMSEY

"Liz"

Ivor, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Rural Club; Travelers Club; Servers Tennis Club '21-'22.

Though quiet and unassuming is Liz, there is beneath this exterior much of the fun-loving and happy-go-lucky about her. She is one, too, to be depended on for anything that might come up. Liz will be much missed next year and we wish her much success in all that she undertakes.

THELMA PAULINE RHODES

"Pollyanna"

Cartersville, Virginia

Athenian Literary Society; Censor winter term '21-'22; Rural Club; Y. W. C. A., Chairman Bible Study Committee '22-'23; Travelers' Club; Athletic Association; Cumberland Club; Blue Ridge Club.

Oh, yes, you can depend on her. Whatever she does you can rest assured that she measures up to her responsibilities. She's willing to do all in her power to help you. When we want entertainment we call on "Polly" for one of her recitations.

SALLY ROYSTON RIVES

"Sally Roy"

Zeta Tau; Pierian Literary Society, Treasurer, fall '22; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Sally Roy is a grand old sport, a jolly companion as well as a good student. She gives lasting friendship and commands true admiration and respect. Sincerity is probably her most outstanding characteristic. This, with her sociability, will carry her far into a happy future career.

ANNETTE ROSE

"Net"

La Crosse, Virginia

Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Glee Club.

Annette is both pretty and attractive. What more could any girl desire? But that is not all. She is sincere and good natured. In fact, there are so many good qualities which she has that it would be impossible to name them all.

EUNICE M. ROSS

Gargatha, Virginia

Y. W. C. A. Alumnae Membership Committee '22-'23; Travelers Club; Athletic Association; Eastern Shore Club, Vice-President; Athenian Literary Society.

Eunice is one of those girls who have little to say, but when it comes to doing, well, she's no quitter. She has ambition, and gets along excellently in her studies. She is one of the most obliging and generous persons it has been our pleasure to meet, and she is one who will be greatly missed when she leaves S. N. S.

SALLIE JAYNE RUCKER

"Jinks"

Moneta, Virginia
Ruffner Literary Society.

Jayne is very studious, and conscientious in her work. Though rather dignified in appearance, she is to those who know her a jolly companion and friend. May she be as successful in her work in the state as in the training school!

ALICE LEE RUMBROUGH

Lynchburg, Virginia

Pi Kappa Omega: Student Standards Committee '22-'23; Kindergarten Club, President '22-'23; Assistant Business Manager "Virginian"; Cunningham Literary Society, Treasurer '22; Lynchburg Club, Treasurer '22; Y. W. C. A., Morning Watch Committee '22-'23; Athletic Association; Campus League '22-'23.

Alice Lee is one of the best pals a girl can have. Her ever ready sympathy is one of her many lovable characteristics. You may depend upon her at all times, especially in class work. She is a girl of great ability and worth, and her place will be hard to fill. Your friends will miss your genial smile and lovable ways, Alice Lee.

MAUDE MASON SAVEDGE

"Buck"

Parksley, Virginia
Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Eastern Shore Club.

Maude is a good example of what the right amount of loyalty, sincerity, good nature, and brains, when properly mixed, will produce. She is little in stature, but those who come within hearing range when she argues, in class or out, know that the fairies who bestow mental ability to mortals have been unusually kind to Maude, and have given her a mind of considerable size. The many to whom you have been a jolly companion, Maude, wish you much success.

EVELYN SCARBOROUGH

Columbus, Georgia

Gamma Theta; Pi Alpha; U Et R; Student Government Committee; Cunningham Literary Society, President '22; Nonhva Club, Secretary '22; Y. W. C. A., Social Committee; Servers Tennis Club; Kindergarten Club; W. A. N. K.; Athletic Association.

Here is our sweet, demure, little Evelyn. Although very quiet, she has won unnumbered friends due to her loving personality and rare quality of sincerity. She is very studious, and we can always depend on her. Keep it up, Evelyn, the class of '23 is with you.

MARY LOUISE SCULL

Newport News, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Rural Club; Travelers Club; Newport News Club; College Club.

Louise is only appreciated by those who know her. She is a good, true friend and has a kind word for all. She has a cheerful disposition and she does her best in whatever she undertakes.

MAMIE LOUISE SEXTON

Graham, Virginia

Delta Sigma Chi; Pan-Hellenic Representative, President '22-'23; Mu Omega; Athenian Literary Society, Secretary '21-'22; President '22-'23; Athletic Council, President '22-'23; Junior Basketball Team, Manager '21-'22; Senior Basketball Team, Captain; Varsity Basketball Team; Servers Tennis Club; Monogram Club; Y. W. C. A., Morning Watch Committee '22-'23; Cotillion Club; W. A. N. K.; N. O. T.

A famous coach once said that good athletes are not made, but born. Sexton stands a living example of that adage today. "Too much Sexton" has spelled defeat more than once when she has so ably guarded the opposing basket. But not alone in athletics does Mamie excel. It was her personality that won her a warm spot in the hearts of all of us.

VIRGINIAN

MARGARET SFAKELFORD

"Shake"

Orange, Virginia

Gamma Theta; Pi Alpha; Student Government Association, Vice-President '22, President '23; Glee Club, Treasurer '22-'23; Pan-Hellenic Representative '22-'23; D. I. R. K.; U. E. T. R.; Student Standards Committee '22-'23; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Argus Literary Society, Treasurer '21-'22; P. M. T.; Junior Basketball Team; Senior Basketball Squad.

"A perfect woman, nobly planned,
To warn, to comfort and command."
So says a famous author. He must have had "our Shake" in mind when he said it. In her class, in the student body, on the athletic field and among the faculty, Shake leaves a record of which she and her class may well be proud.

ELSIE MAE SHAWEN

"Shawnee"

Waterford, Virginia

Dramatic Club; Jefferson Literary Society, Corresponding Secretary, '22; Travelers Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Rural Life Club.

To say that Elsie is kind hearted is only expressing mildly the wonderfully sympathetic nature that she possesses. A mixture of wit and fun and steadfastness with a great deal of kindness and generosity makes Elsie Shawen.

BETTIE SHEPARD

"Shep"

Guinea Mills, Virginia

De Ho Ec Club; Buckingham Club; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Ellen Richards Club '20-'21; Le Cercle Français '20-'21; Athenian Literary Society.

Betty has a happy, sunny disposition, which makes her loved by all her classmates. If you look the world over for an "honest-to-goodness" friend, you could find none truer, more generous, or more faithful than Betty.

RACHEL SHEPHERD

Covington, Virginia

Pi Alpha; D. I. R. K.; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; De Ho Ec Club; Alleghany County Club.

To know Rachel is to love her. She is always willing to lend a helping hand, and is a friend to all. We're wishing for you the best of luck, Rachel, and S. N. S. will surely miss you.

RUTH SHOCKLEY

"Babe Ruth"

Stuart, Virginia

Delta Sigma Chi; Zeta Tau; D. I. R. K.; Orchestra; Glee Club; Dramatic Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

A steady and sincere worker who is always ready to lend sympathy or a helping hand, is Ruth. In addition to these qualities she has common sense and knows how to use it. "Babe Ruth" is a true artist, especially in sociability and in music.

ERNA FLEETWOOD SHOTWELL

"Shot"

Republican Grove, Virginia

Athletic Association; Baseball Team, Manager '19-'20, Captain '20-'22; Basketball Team, Captain '20-'21; Servers Tennis Club, Secretary '21-'22, Vice-President '20-'21; Basketball Squad '21-'23; Ellen Richards Club; De Ho Ec Club; Le Cercle Français, Secretary '20-'21; Y. W. C. A., Membership Committee '22-'23.

Erna has the knack of making friends, and the sincerity which helps her to keep them. You sometimes see Shot serious, but never angry. She plays basketball exceedingly well, and we hope that when she starts on the serious profession of teaching the young "how to cook" she will give them as sure an aim as she has in all athletics.

VIRGINIA KATHERINE SIZEMORE

"Gina"

Virgilina, Virginia

Athenian Literary Society; Rural Club, Vice-President; Y. W. C. A., Bible Study Committee '21-'22; Travelers Club; Halifax Club; Athletic Association; Le Cercle Français.

We laugh at her jokes, admire her teaching ability and perseverance, adore her quaintness and like her for her personality. Laugh, and Gina laughs with you; cry, and Gina cries with you. Sympathy is the keynote of qualities and many others well known to us all, we feel safe in predicting success for her, no matter whether she teachers in a country school or elsewhere.

MARION DUNDINA SLEDD

Fine Creek Mills, Virginia

Do you know Marion? You might not unless you have conversed with her or some of the faculty members about her. She has persevered and won her way through many difficulties in order to attain a higher education. Her motto has been "serve and strive on." She has won honors and the esteem of all.

ETTA PEARLE SMITH

Farmville, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athenian Literary Society; Cumberland Club, Vice-President '22-'23; Rural Life Club.

I wonder what I shall say about this little girl? She is always kept busy studying and practicing. The rest of her time is spent in writing letters. Every night just before light bell Pearle is seen going around to Room 32 to narrate the experiences of the day and talk about her latest crush.

JANIE FRANCES SMITH

Chatham, Virginia

Travelers Club; Hiking Club; Cunningham Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Ellen Richards Club; Le Cerele Français.

Here's to Janie! The kind of girl everyone likes. She is never idle, but does her work without display. If you look the world over for an "honest-to-goodness" friend, you would find no truer, more generous, or more unselfish one than Janie.

PHYLLIS SNEAD

"Bill"

Cartersville, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Rural Club, Secretary '22-'23; Athletic Association; Athenian Literary Society; Cumberland Club.

She is so sedate that one is surprised when first they catch a glimpse of that little streak of humor which, peeping out now and then, causes that very reserved aspect to disappear. She is always gentle and kind, and we believe that her sweet personality will bring her the happiness we wish her in the future.

ETHEL MAY SPAID

"Spaidie"

Winchester, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Travelers Club, Secretary '22-'23; Jefferson Literary Society; Athletic Association.

"Spaidie" is loved by all of us. She is most efficient in her studies and is well versed in the fact that there's a time for work and a time for play. Ethel is very fond of drawing, and her talent foretells a successful career.

ALMA LEE SPIERS

Norfolk, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Norfolk Club; Ruffner Literary Society; I. K. U.

Alma is a girl who is ever ready to help anyone in need. If you haven't known her you have missed a treat for she is a true friend and one who will remain true.

ELISABETHE STEGER

Farmville, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Training School Paper Editor '18-'19.

By way of introduction, Elisabethe is no better nor worse than the rest of us. She generally takes a back seat in class, but not a backward part. Her interest is not purely academic, for she plans to make a cozy little home some day for one of her bachelor brothers(?) in a nearby town.

LOUISE AMANDA STEPHENSON

Suffolk, Virginia

Ruffner Literary Society; Travelers Club; Y. W. C. A.; Southampton Club.

Louise is very quiet and reserved, but once you get below the surface you find a heart of pure gold. We love to call her friend, for she is worth knowing. She lends her ears to all, but to few her voice, as she seems determined to speak only when she has something worth while to say.

MARIA TATE STERRET

"Tate"

Rockbridge Baths, Virginia

Argus Literary Society; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; De Ho Ec Club.

All who know Tate are aware of the fact that no truer, more sincere friend may be found. She is always ready and willing to lend a helping hand. With her sunny disposition she makes many friends.

LIZZIE IRMA STORY

Capron, Virginia

Y. W. C. A., Y Store Committee '21-'22; Athenian Literary Society, Corresponding Secretary '22; Southampton Club, Treasurer '22; Athletic Association.

Liz will be master of all trades as soon as she learns to cook and to sew. Why, she could make music with a rusty tin pan if the piano got out of tune. She is really good at carpentering, anything from a floor lamp to a tooth pick holder. A proof of "where there's a will there's a way" is Lizzie.

MARY VENABLE TALIAFERRO

Lynchburg, Virginia

Sigma Sigma Sigma; Mu Omega; Senior Class Secretary '22-'23; Student Government Committee; International Kindergarten Union, Treasurer '22-'23; Argus Literary Society, Corresponding Secretary '22-'23; Lynchburg Club; Athletic Association; Le Cerele Francais, Vice-President '20-'21; Critic '21-'22; Hiking Club, Lieutenant '20-'21; Y. W. C. A., Bible Study Committee '22-'23; W. A. S. K.

Here's to one of the best old girls in the class of '23. Her perpetual good humor and lovable personality have won and are destined to win for her in the future numerous friends. A good student and a loyal friend, she has deservedly won the love and respect of faculty and girls alike, and all of us wish for her in the future the success which has been her lot here at school.

ANNE M. TERRELL

"Tulie"

Roanoke, Virginia

Argus Literary Society; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A. Campus League; Roanoke Club.

A dreamer of dreams, a lover of literature, an undaunted spirit, but human enough to possess an unexpected sense of humor and just a touch of cynicism. This is Anne, and Anne as we would always have her.

WILLIE LOUISE TOWLES

"Billy"

Merry Point, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Ruffner Literary Society; Rural Club.

Jolly and witty and ever ready to lend a helping hand is Louise. Those who know her are well aware of the fact that she is a good sport, and a worthy friend. Here's wishing you all success, Billy.

HENRIETTA JANE TREAKLE

Palmer, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.

Jane has a sense of humor that is always ready to crop out in a merry smile or soft giggle. Through her sweet personality she has won a warm place in the hearts of her friends, and the class of '23 is proud to acknowledge her as one of its own, especially as she is such a good student.

ANNE LISLE TUCKER

"Tuck"

South Hill, Virginia

Pierian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.;
Athletic Association.

Among the many girls at Farmville Normal Anne Lisle is one of the best. She is a true friend and an admirable companion, and as a sport she has plenty of spirit. She has a mischievous look in her eyes, but despite this she is capable of being very serious at times.

ELLEN OLIVIA TURNER

Courtland, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Rural Club; Southhampton
Club; Ruffner Literary Society.

She is the embodiment of all that is gay and happy; nothing seems to trouble her breezy air. In her one finds a true friend and companion. She is good in student activities, jolly in a crowd, and enthusiastic in everything. Here's to Ellen, dearest of senior girls.

LUCILLE UPTON

Farmville, Virginia

Y. W. C. A. Athletic Association; Athenian Literary Society; Glee Club; Dramatic Club.

Singing, dancing, and acting are just a few of Lucille's accomplishments. Furthermore, she is always willing and ready to do any one of them. Her ready smile and willingness to help have made her unusually popular with her classmates.

VIRGINIA VENABLE

"Gin"

Farmville, Virginia

Gamma Theta, Pi Alpha, Cotillion Club, W-A-N-K; Athenian Literary Society Corresponding Secretary '22-'23; Glee Club; Y. W. C. A.; Social Committee '21-'22; Tennis Team; Senior Basket Ball Squad '22-'23; Assistant Business Manager, Virginian '22-'23; Athletic Association.

Virginia always has a crowd around her listening to her many glorious tales of dates and dances. Her ability to succeed and her never failing interest in everything will carry her through life with flying colors.

EUGENIA CLEMENTINE VINCENT

"Gene"

Emporia, Virginia

Sigma Sigma Sigma; Mu Omega; Cunningham Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Indeed, it is only when one knows this little lady that one can appreciate her. She is enterprising and studious, but do not think she hasn't her share of fun and mischief. She has won a place in the hearts of all that know her.

MARGARET WADE

"Peggy"

Lexington, Virginia

Mu Omega; ΔΣΣ; Ruffner Literary Society President Spring '22; Cotillion Club; Chairman Social Committee of Y. W. C. A.; D. I. R. K.

What can anyone say, or rather tell of "Peggy" that will make her more attractive in our eyes? Her sweet smile and never failing interest have made us all love her. And somehow, we believe that when we hear of Peggy in the years to come, it will not be because her home is in Lexington, but because of her sterling qualities.

AGNES WALKER

Norfolk, Virginia

Sigma Sigma Sigma; Pi Alpha; D. I. R. K.; N. O. T.; Y. W. C. A.; Cunningham Literary Society Treasurer '22-'23; Cotillion Club; Dramatic Club; F. F.; Athletic Association; Pan-Hellenic Representative; Norfolk Club.

From that magic city by the sea came Agnes, bringing some of its magnetism with her. Norfolk's loss was indeed a gain for Farmville and S. N. S. Agnes has the beauty that is more than skin deep and because of this wins admirers at first sight who become staunch friends soon. Her ever ready smile and winning personality have made her a warm place in our hearts.

JANIE D. WATKINS

Rocky Mount, North Carolina

Delta Sigma Chi; Mu Omega; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association; Cotillion Club; D. I. R. K.

Hollins' great misfortune has been our good luck, for it brought us that sweet ole Janie D. Though only for a year, it has given us time to know her, and we will miss her when she leaves us. A good nature, a ready smile and a big heart are some of Janie D's outstanding features. All in all, you'll look far before you find another like her.

NANNIE BOYD WATTS

Hampton, Virginia

Zeta Tau; Y. W. C. A. Religious Meetings Committee, '22-'23; Athletic Association; Pierian Literary Society.

"Nannie" is quiet and dignified you say? Maybe you think so, but her friends will hardly agree. We know her to be one of the jolliest members of the class, just full to the brim with fun and enthusiasm. She loves a good time and goes into whatever she undertakes with whole-hearted interest.

ELSIE LENORA WEBB

"Boots"

Salem, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Roanoke Club; Athletic Association; Kindergarten Club.

Here is the girl with a sunny smile and a cheery word. She is a true friend to all who know her and is never too busy to lend a helping hand to those who need it. Elsie is one of those persons who, if not surrounded with great pleasures, finds enjoyment and happiness in small ones. She is a lovable companion and an incomparable talker.

MARTHA LAURA WELLS

Bedford, Virginia

Delta Sigma Chi; D. I. R. K.; Cotillion Club; Dramatic Club; Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Cunningham Literary Society.

Martha's wit and ever ready smile have made her loved by all of her classmates. She is a good mixture of wit brains and attractiveness. Martha shines out brightly in dramatics as well as in the class room. She is truly an addition to the class of '23, and we shall miss her when she leaves. We know that a great future awaits Martha.

DELIA WILLIAMS

Columbus, Georgia

Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A., Publicity Committee; Art Editor of "Virginian"; Noniva Club; D. I. R. K.

The best of classmates and friends is Delia. She is the same today, tomorrow, and forever. One must know her to appreciate her wealth of ambition and artistic talent. She possesses strong determination and we believe she is bound to scale the walls of success with honor. In addition to all this, she has a rare personality composed of many charms.

ELIZABETH D. WILLIAMS

"Liz"

Danville, Virginia

Delta Sigma Chi; Pi Alpha; Athenian Literary Society; Dramatic Club Wardrobe Mistress '20; D. L. R. K.; Athletic Association; Cotillion Club; Pan-Hellenic Representative '19-'20; Glee Club; Kindergarten Club.

We shall always think of "Liz" as the charming "June-Ellen" in "Come Out of the Kitchen." How well that part suited her! —petted, winsome, adorable. She is unusually popular and attractive. Her great talent combined with her many other excellent qualities and the best wishes of a host of friends make the way for a brilliant future for "Liz."

FRANCES WILLIAMS

Danville, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

She is sweet, studious, lovable and sincere. Now that may be a great deal to say about one little girl, but everybody agrees that none of these words can be left out in an adequate description of Frances. Though she is quiet, she is also endowed with mischievousness, and is always ready for a good joke.

MEDIA OPHELIA WILLIAMS

"Peggy"

Reedville, Virginia

Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Northern Neck Club.

Forever gay and with plenty of pep Media is happy to be on the go, having a good time everywhere. She is so tiny and full of mischief one would never think of her as a dignified senior. She shows that she is, however, when it comes to working well and showing her class spirit. May you have all success Media!

MARY J. WILSON

Lewisburg, West Virginia

Athletic Association; Zeta Tau; Y. W. C. A.; Campus League; Kindergarten Club, Secretary; Cunningham Literary Society, Treasurer; Glee Club; Out of State Club.

All good things come in small packages and so it is with Mary J. We do not attempt to tell just how much sunshine, friendliness, originality and ability can be bound up in so small a package.

SPOTSWOOD WIMBISH

"Spot"

Nathalie, Virginia

Sigma Sigma Sigma; Mu Omega; W. A. N. K.; N. O. T.; Cotillion Club.

To dance! Oh, what a joy—Many try, but to excel in it! Spot can dance, but that is not all. It would be hard to enumerate all her accomplishments. Spot by her smile and "hail fellow, well met" attitude towards all, has endeared herself to every one. And when in years to come, we see her or hear of her, it will indeed be a pleasure.

SALLY WOODARD

Norfolk, Virginia

Gamma Theta; Cotillion Club; Pierian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association.

Sally is quiet, unassuming, quaint, sweet and good-natured. She is studious and is an excellent pupil. My! but watch the sunshine sparkle in her pretty brown eyes when a certain person's name is mentioned.

MARGARET FRANCES WOODHOUSE

Camp Bragg, North Carolina

Argus Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.;
Rural Life Committee '22-'23; Ellen Richard
Club; Newport News Club, Treasurer '22-'23;
Athletic Association.

A dependable, loyal supporter of school activities, and a girl who can do her work well and without talking about it, is Frances. The gift of being a good listener is as valuable as that of being a good talker. If you want a secret kept, just tell it to her; she is a sympathetic comrade.

MILDRED WOODHOUSE

Oceana, Virginia

Gamma Theta; Pi Alpha; D. I. R. K.; U.-
Et.-R.; Cotillion Club; Merian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Association;
Senior Basket Ball Squad.

Here's to one of the sweetest and prettiest girls in the class of '23. Her dependability and willingness have taken her a long way with us, and brought her success. May she continue to have success in all of her undertakings.

GLADYS HARRELL YATES

Suffolk, Virginia

Y. W. C. A.; Jefferson Literary Society,
Reporter—Spring, '22, Vice-President—Fall,
'22; Server's Tennis Club; Glee Club; Athletic Association.

Dignified, reserved, and studious, such is Gladys. She is a noteworthy example of how much natural ability is enhanced by application. Gladys is a true and faithful friend. Without a doubt constancy is one of her virtues, and a very admirable one. With her faithfulness to duty and earnestness of purpose, she moves steadfastly toward her goal. Gladys, we all unite in wishing you the best of success in the future.

Class Poem

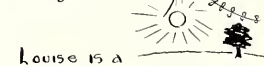

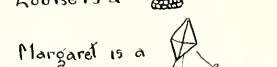

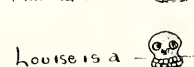

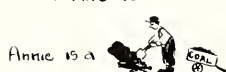

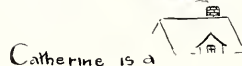

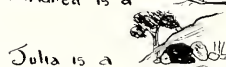

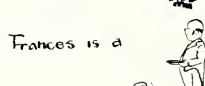

Beyond in the far distant future
Stands the haven of our dreams,
And while here we are struggling onward,
There the light of contentment gleams;
Tho' the path be winding and lonely,
And the mountains gloomy and steep,
We will win if we're true to our purpose,
And our ideals before us ere keep;
For, as a class we have high ideals,
Our goal lies beyond many a bend,
But wisdom and strength we will gain,
As o'er the steep rocks we ascend.
A few may surpass the others
And enter the halls of fame.
But most will trudge on till
The end, day by day, the same.

Only the brave and true will win
This goal of our heart's desire,
And tho' troubles in hosts surround us,
We must neither weaken nor tire;
For the victory belongs to the stronger,
And the false must fall by the way:
For some will be stronger than others,
And advance while the others stay
Far behind on the road of Life,
And watch his fellowmen stream past.
But those of us who keep true to our course,
Will reach our goals safely at last,
So whether we win, or whether we fail,
Remember that law of yore,
That each will reap what he doth sow.
And nothing less nor more.

Dear Joan of Arc:

Poor thing! You are such an ardent supporter of my Varsity and you can never go to any of their games! I feel so sorry for you. And I am going to tell you about some of the high lights of our trip. I won't bore you with an official account of the game because Miss Buford is going to write such an account and I know you will see it.

Of course, you heard the peppy send-off the students gave us as we were leaving Friday morning. And Miss Camper was so sweet to take our baggage to the station, although I didn't have any. Doc Frasier and Miss Barlow were the senders-off and there were a lot of unofficial senders, but I won't call their names for fear of that Student Committee. They were not there to see for themselves and they will never hear a word from me.

I was quite a joyous monkey until I got on the train and saw old Nicko—that Krazy Kat of Teence Bell's. We had quite a peaceful trip to Lynchburg, only if the train had been going at the same rate as String's tongue we would have reached Lynchburg before we were due at Tuggles.

We were met at Lynchburg by a Miss Thornhill who seemed quite glad to see us. Here Miss Buford fed us—the girls had ham sandwiches, while she had a nice steak. Nicko cried for milk, but she paid no mind to him.

On the train from Lynchburg to Charlottesville we travelled with another basketball team, but they couldn't be compared to my team—why, they had to carry a basketball to show they were a team!

Harrisonburg was lovely to the girls and also showed me quite a bit of attention. Why, I got introduced to Miss Lancaster. The team got awfully sleepy Saturday so Miss Buford advised them to go to bed. But the three flappers—Elmer, Etta and Rosabelle, had a grand time flapping, and I went along as chaperone.

Now I shall tell you a few bits about the most thrilling game I ever saw. Yes, the Farmville rooters carried me and Nicko to the game and we had reserved seats. Joan, I never heard so much noise. The cheer leaders were the peppiest I have ever seen or heard. I wish our girls could have heard them. You know about imitation. But Joan, I can't you much about the game. I held my breath most of the time, and my heart stopped beating when A. B. dented the floor. But we beat them Joan—we did. But just think what those girls had to bring them good luck. Miss Coach had two "Buck-eyes"—Teence wore a rabbit's foot, and Nicko and I were there—they could have won without us all; I never saw such playing.

Poor Julia got a black eye, but she was so proud of it. Said she wouldn't get rid of it for money.

After the show we were given a wonderful banquet by the Harrisonburg people. I went, but old Nicko got left, and I just laughed and laughed!

I wish you could have seen and heard our girls after the game. They were so happy. Coach let them break training and they ate some candy.

But the trip has nearly finished me—I must go to sleep. I'd rather have my bed in Farmville than all Harrisonburg.

Yours in basketball,
Poly (Julia's monkey)

Ray—Ray—Ray! Rah!
 Team! Team! Team!
 Team, Team, bully of a team
 Farmville team, rah! (repeat)
 Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah!
 Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah!
 Team! Team! Team!

(Tune Mr. Galligher)

—1—

Oh! Mr. Galligher, Oh! Mr. Galligher!
 What are all those people doing on the floor
 Now they try to hit the ball
 When it isn't there at all
 And they fight and scrap till all of them are sore.
 Oh! Mr. Sheen, Oh! Mr. Sheen
 When they try to hit each other on the bean
 They are going to win a game
 Which will bring their school much fame
 Is it Mr. Galligher?
 No, it's Farmville, Mr. Sheen.

—2—

Oh! come on Farmville, Oh, come on Farmville
 You can win this game and never try you know
 You can knock 'em on the floor
 While you quickly pile the score
 And win everlasting fame for S. N. S.

Farmville girls are high minded
 'Believe to my soul they're double jinted
 They play ball and don't mind it
 All day long.

Oh! (repeat)

(Tune: Everybody works but father)

Play ball, play ball, Farmville
 Make another goal
 Don't you mind ole —
 Watch our score roll
 Centers, use your team work
 Send it down the line
 We're going to keep the victory
 For all the time!

I'm Farmville born and Farmville bred
 And when I die I'll be Farmville dead
 Chorus—

Ray, Ray, oh Farmville, Farmville
 Ray, Ray, oh Farmville, Farmville
 Ray, Ray, oh Farmville.
 Ray, Ray, Ray.

The blue and white will wave on high,
 We win this game to-day or die.

Rah! Rah! Farmville Rah!
 Rah! Rah! for Farmville,
 Farmville Rah!
 We'll fight for Farmville glory
 Until our heads be hoary
 All hail the Farmville team of S. N. S.

Thy Daughters True Faithful

The day was over and the little old, old lady was left alone to dream of the past. The embers, now dying, cast fitful shadows on the walls. From out the dark corners they seemed to come, ghosts of the past, of the years well or misspent. The little old, old lady in lavender welcomed them, the ghosts or memories of the yesterdays. First there were those of only a few years past; the faces of her own children, and those of the many, many children of East Side, New York, who had had only the little old, old lady for a mother, the great doctor of East Side whom she had loved and scolded alike. All those gave way to other ghosts of the past, crowds of laughing school girls, their arms entwined as they strolled along a shadowy street of her memory. For the tiny little lady in lavender was the oldest alumnae of Farmville, and the very last of the class of '23.

The little old, old lady looked back through the years she had lived; the years of invalidism, back of that to the years she had been lower New York's "Sunshine Lady," where she had first known the great doctor and had been persuaded by him to be his most troublesome patient, his wife. Together they had fought the evils of lower New York. Further in the past were the years of girlhood in school; the long years with their joys and heartaches, the big events with the little things she counted most dear; of all the ghosts of the past those of the years in school she welcomed most, bobbed-haired girls, brown-eyed, blue-eyed girls, girls who laughed always, others mostly wistful, girls tall and fair, the girls that made up the class of '23.

Half hidden among the soft folds of her lavender dress lay a diary, the gilt letters in the leather, worn, but not tarnished, though almost indistinguishable, the letters, '23.

Idly turning the pages, she hummed softly, "All Hail! Alma Mater, dear Mother, to thee," her Alma Mater song. She hesitated as she saw written in the Locker hand she had labored long to learn at S. N. S., across the now yellowed page, "Just heard from the game at Harrisonburg! Farmville 26-22! Rah!" The little old, old lady who had shuddered at bull fights in Mexico and sighed as she walked among the ruins of the Colosseum at Rome, thrilled at the remembrance of the games in the Armory. Though a crutch and the ascent of the many years made her a prisoner, yet she was free, as she remembered the thoughts of the "Snake Dance" to the Armory, or dancing between bells in the Gym.

Turning further she saw "Student Government Night," and the little old lady who had handled many a miscreant lad or pleaded for another chance for the unloved, freckle-faced little boys in a Juvenile Court, found her heart beating a little faster yet at the memory, for she had taken part in every phase of school life at Farmville, even that ordeal of being called up "Tuesday Nights" before the Student Council for thoughtless disobedience. Then the little old lady had learned by "gentle instruction thy influence so sweet, will go with them always a guide to their feet." Humming the line so softly they hardly reached the dark corners of the room, the little old, old lady mused upon how those lines had rung true in her own life, for there had been times when she had had to choose between a life for Self or a life for Others. The little old lady whispered softly, reverently glad that she had "learned to cherish things lovely and fair."

The Diary fell unheeded to the floor; as the little old, old lady remembered across the years, how she had sung the "Alma Mater" song as she prepared tea for desolate, aged ladies or washed the eyes of the crying babies of young mothers, who wondered what the "Sunshine Lady" hummed as she cared for each.

An Irishwoman who boasted of many lines of snow white garments heard the "Sunshine Lady" singing softly as she climbed the many stairs that led past her door to the room of a crippled lad. Coming back one day the "Sunshine Lady" was surprised to hear a strong alto humming the closing lines of the "Alma Mater" song. Through an open door she saw the washer woman singing with the rhythm of the steady rubbing across a washboard. To the "Sunshine Lady" she and the washerwoman typified but a little the spirit of service, of which the "Alma Mater" song told.

Each friend as she remembered her had in her own way followed, and each had received most from following. The little old, old lady smiled in remembrance of what following had meant to her. Again across the bed of a feverish child she seemed to hear the great Doctor of lower New York say, "What is that song you sing always?" and in a baritone he hummed the closing bars of the Alma Mater song. He was soon to hear and learn the magic song that lower New York called the "Sunshine Song." More than one unloved, uncared for baby had heard it for a lullaby, and the little old, old lady smiled very tenderly.

As she picked up the Diary, from it fell a rose that she had pressed from the cherry tree that bore roses. The Diary opened at the very last page. On it was written, not steadily, "June 14. Today we sang together for the last time our Alma Mater song. Somehow each word held some new meaning for me." Below was copied the Alma Mater song. The little old, old lady smiled happily for the years that had intervened and at the close of the Alma Mater song, below the lines "All Hail, Alma Mater, dear Mother, to thee, Thy daughters true, faithful and loyal will be," she wrote very surely "Today, too, they have a new meaning for me."

Turning further she read, "Made a homesick girl glad," and the little old, old lady smiled the smile of friendliness that brought a new hope to East Side, New York. She sighed as she remembered the first few months at Farmville of heartache and loneliness, when she had learned that to have friends she must be a friend. At first the little old, old lady had not caught the ideals of her Alma Mater. But after some months of patient striving she had caught and held the spirit of brotherhood that had prepared her for the years and work to come. So with gladness that she had kept the faith she sang with a new meaning, "Thy daughters true, faithful and loyal will be."

 Farewell to Alma Mater!

A SCALEY STORY

A Major loved a maiden so,
His warlike heart was soft as	Do.
He would often kneel to her and say:
"Thou art my life and only	Ray.
Oh, if but kinder thou wouldst be,
And sometimes sweetly smile on	Me.
Thou art my earth, my guiding star:
I love thee near, I love thee	Fa.
My passion I can not control—
Thou art the idol of my	Sol."
The maid suggests his asking pa.
The Major cries, "What, I? Oh.	La!"
The Major rose from bended knee,
And went her father for to	Si.
The father thought no match was finer—
The Major once had been a	Minor
They married soon and after that
Dwelt in the rooms all in one	Flat.
So happy ends this little tale,
For they lived on the grandest	Scale.

We Build

We build for the past—
Our school-girl past—
With its memories tender and sweet;
There is never a doubt
With the past left out
That life would be incomplete.

We build for the present—
The splendid today—
With its April smiles and tears;
For the lesson of truth
Instilled in our youth,,
Will last through the coming years.

We build for the future
And all it may hold—
For the girls of the years to come;
To give us a share
In the pleasure rare
That will grace their dear school-home.

We build for the School—
Alma Mater, so fair—
Thy daughters are loyal and true;
With zeal in each heart
They're doing their part
To show their devotion to you!

And so we build on,
Just a brick at a time—
Until our fair building shall rise.
A monument sweet
To our love, and replete
With the spirit of sacrifice.

For as we build on
We're doing our best
To give of ourselves as we can;
By earnest endeavor
(Our faith flagging never)
Completing our beautiful plan!

—Jennie Masters Tabb.

JOKES

Teacher: "Tell me something about the North pole."

Johnny: "It is sixteen feet tall."

Teacher: "But what about the climate?"

Johnny: "Eskimos climb it."

Frances J.: "You know I was a remarkable baby."

Julia: "You don't say?"

Frances: "When I was six weeks old I was very ill. Doctor said, 'I can do nothing at all.' I looked up and said nothing at all."

Lucy Reid: "Oh! I've just been teaching Henry Timrod."

Spot: "I thought he was in the grades and you taught in the high school."

2nd Prof: "Are you interested in the game? It is now half over."

1st Prof: "Yes, indeed! How many halves are there?"

Junior (after discussion of "When Knighthood was in Flower"): "They cut off Mary Tudor's head in the history book, didn't they?"

Thorny (hearing the frogs in the swamps): "Oh, listen at the fish singing, spring is coming."

Teacher of Arithmetic: "Johnny, how old is a person who was born in 1894?"

Johnny: "Man or woman?"

Ellen: "See these girls, I've been feeding them doughnuts to get rid of them."

Marie (looking at the girls): "Get rid of which, the doughnuts or the girls?"

Margaret: "This looks like a grave case."

Offender: "I'd rather be cremated."

Teacher in Room Q: "I'm excusing you ten minutes early today. Please go out quietly so as not to wake the other classes."

DEFINITIONS

Flirtation: Spoon with nothing in it.

Ideal Couple: A horsey man and a nagging wife.

Litter: Scattered rubbish.

Literature: Collected rubbish.

Student teacher in Economics Class: "Who established the law of diminishing returns?"

Student from the rear: "The laundry people."

Teaching Senior: "Joe, will you please name the presidents?"

Joe: "Say, Miss, they are already named; besides I'd never think of names enough."

Student: "I don't think you should give this test, Mr. Bell."

Mr. Bell: "Why not?"

Student: "Because you said if your book was returned, you'd ask no question."

Someone once said two heads were better than one; whoever said it never has been to the movies.

Christine: "It is awfully warm in this office."

Emily: "Speak to the circulation manager."

Senior: "This picture makes me look like a monkey."

Anne: "You should have thought of that before you had it taken."

Old Girl: "Let's go down and sit on the campus."

New Girl: "Goody, I've been wanting to find out what the campus was ever since I came."

S. G. President: "Now, girls, you must not remove the stoppers from the tubs. Why, you can't even find a stopper to bathe with."

Rosabelle: "But it isn't right for you to say you love me; you must only think it."

Albert: "But I don't think it; I only said it."

Shake: "Last night I dreamed I was in heaven."

Nancy: "Did you see me there?"

Shake: "Yes, and then I knew I was dreaming."

Little Willie, full of fun,
Hid one time in a three-inch gun.
The Fourth it was, and, sad to say,
Willie came down in the form of spray.

Christmas Tree Vendor: "Buy a tree, lady, buy a tree and make your children happy."

Miss Shelton (blushing): "Sir! I'll have you understand I have no children."

Vendor: "Buy some mistletoe, lady, lots of nice mistletoe."

Mattie B.: "New sweater?"

Anna: "Nope, new roommate."

(Valentine from a 3rd grade knight to his student teacher:)

The rose is red, the stem is green,
You're the prettiest girl I ever seen.

Lois, to an English class (when appendicitis was raging): "Open your books now to chapter five of Slater's appendix."

Mary (to 3rd Profs): "Why didn't you all sing 'Hinkey' in your stunt?"

Kemp: "We never thought of it."

Emily: "You should have had my brilliant head there to think for you."

Graduates of accredited high schools are admitted without examination to the Professional Courses.

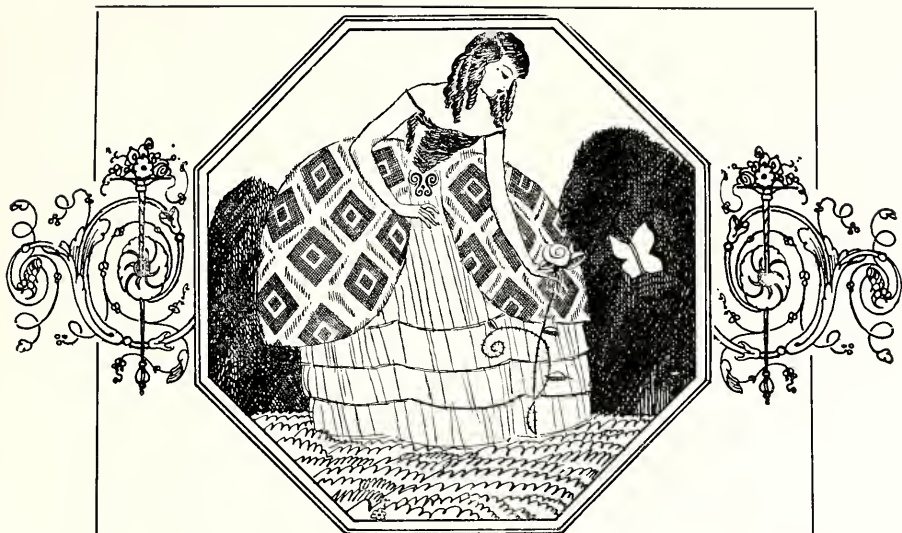

Courses offered: Professional Courses for the preparation of teachers for Kindergarten, Primary and Grammar Grades, High School, Graded Rural School, Home Economics and County Demonstration Work.

The four-year College Course leads to the Degree of Bachelor of Science in education; students completing the first two years of this course are entitled to the same diploma granted for the completion of the other two-year professional courses.

Expense for all courses is the same and students in all courses are eligible for the State Scholarship.
